Military Tuition Benefit for Active Duty members, Spouses, and Dependents

Under North Carolina General Statues Section 116-143.3, members of the armed services and their dependent relatives may become eligible to be charged less than the out-of-state tuition rate even if they do not qualify as residents for tuition purposes under G.S. 116-143.1. Copies of the applicable law and of implementing University regulations are available for inspection upon request in the Office of Admissions. The basic requirement for eligibility is that the individual be active duty military stationed in North Carolina or live with, and be the military dependent of a member of the armed forces who is stationed in North Carolina on active military duty. Any such applicant for this benefit must be academically qualified for admission to this institution.

Under North Carolina General Statues Section 116-143.4, certain military dependents enrolled in North Carolina high schools or North Carolina General Education Development (GED) programs may also be eligible to be considered residents of the State for admission purposes.

This application must be submitted prior to the initial enrollment term for which the In-State benefit is claimed. In the event your sponsor is reassigned outside of North Carolina you will continue to be eligible for the In-State rate so long as you are continuously enrolled in the degree program. If you or your sponsor are no longer stationed in North Carolina, and a break in your enrollment occurs, you are no longer eligible for this benefit. If a break in your enrollment does occur, and you or your sponsor are still stationed in North Carolina, You are eligible for this benefit. You must resubmit this form prior to the term in which you readmit.
