This Call for Manuscripts is extended to scholars to submit manuscripts related to Blacks throughout the African Diaspora for publication consideration in special issues of The Negro Educational Review. We are interested in manuscripts that address research, theory, and practice. Deadlines for submission are as follows:

- Special Issue: Health  Submission Deadline: June 1, 2014
- Special Issue: Mentoring  Submission Deadline: January 1, 2015
- Special Issue: Military  Submission Deadline: June 1, 2015
- Special Issue: Public Policy and Legal Issues  Submission Deadline: January 1, 2016
- Special Issue: Higher Education  Submission Deadline: June 1, 2016

Manuscripts must be computer produced and submitted in the most recent Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA). Length of manuscript should be between 20 and 40 double spaced pages; however, longer manuscripts may be considered. An abstract of approximately 150 words must accompany the manuscript. Additional information about manuscript submission is attached and appears in the journal.

Email copy of manuscripts to Dr. LaDelle Olion, Editor-in-Chief of The Negro Educational Review, at NER@uncfsu.edu.
Submission Information for Authors

Preparation of Manuscripts

1. Manuscripts should be prepared and submitted in Microsoft Word.
3. Manuscripts length of manuscript should be between 20 and 40 double spaced pages; however, longer manuscripts will be considered.
4. An abstract of approximately 150 words must accompany the manuscript.
5. Tables, figures, and references must conform to the most recent edition of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA).
6. Do not embed tables and figures in the body of the manuscript. Instead, make a reference to where tables and figures should be placed in the manuscript. For example, insert the following (Insert Table 1 about here) on a separate line.
7. Place table and figures on separate pages at the end of the manuscript.
8. Add a running head that does not exceed 50 character spaces.
9. All pages of the manuscript should be numbered consecutively.
10. When necessary, author(s) are required to secure permission to produce copyrighted material.
11. Manuscripts that do not conform to these guidelines shall be returned for revision.

Cover Letter to Accompany Manuscripts

Manuscripts must be accompanied by a cover letter that provides the following:

1. Name of manuscript
2. First, middle, and last name of author(s) and degree designation
3. Professional title for author(s)
4. Complete name and address of institution and department
5. Home and work telephone number(s), FAX number(s)
6. Email address for author(s)

Also, author(s) must indicate that the manuscript:

7. Has not been published elsewhere
8. Has not been submitted for publication elsewhere

Finally, author(s) must indicate that sources have been accurately identified, that credit has been given for work of others, and that permission is granted to publish in The Negro Educational Review.
Submission of Manuscripts

Submit as an email attachment to Dr. LaDelle Olion at ner@uncfsu.edu.

Complimentary Copies of Journal

For each manuscript published, two complimentary copies of the journal will be forwarded to the corresponding author. Additional copies may be purchased from the NER Editorial Office, The Graduate School, Fayetteville State University, 1200 Murchison Road, Fayetteville, NC 28301.