Fayetteville State University is a member of the storied Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA). In recent years, teams have brought home championships in football, basketball, golf, volleyball, tennis, bowling, and softball. In 2012, our golf team won its fourth PGA National Minority Collegiate Division II Championship. During that same year, FSU also won CIAA championships in women's volleyball and bowling.