Scholarships

According to the most recent statistics (2011-2012), 75% of FSU students receive some form of financial aid (5,034 recipients out of 6,748 students). Additionally, 64% of FSU undergraduates are from low-income families, as measured by Pell eligibility (3,923 undergraduates out of 6,168 students). To help our students who need financial assistance to pursue and complete their degrees in timely manner, the university must increase the general scholarship fund. Scholarships are needed to attract and retain highly motivated students at the undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral levels in all fields of study.
