FSU Policy on Electronic Mail: Fayetteville State University provides to each student, free of charge, an electronic mail account (username@uncfsu.edu) that is easily accessible via the Internet. The university has established FSU email as the primary mode of correspondence between university officials and enrolled students. Inquiries and requests from students pertaining to academic records, grades, bills, financial aid, and other matters of a confidential nature must be submitted via FSU email. Inquiries or requests from personal email accounts are not assured a response. The university maintains open-use computer laboratories throughout the campus that can be used to access electronic mail.

Rules and regulations governing the use of FSU email may be found at http://www.uncfsu.edu/PDFs/EmailPolicyFinal.pdf

II. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course introduces the theories of war, and principles of intelligence support for military operations – including definitions and problems of strategic, operational and tactical intelligence. The course will explore the collection capabilities available to the military in both war and peace-time scenarios. Capabilities include Geospatial Intelligence (GEOINT), Measurements and Signature Intelligence (MASINT), Signals Intelligence (SIGINT), Human Intelligence (HUMINT) and Open-source Intelligence (OSINT). The course will apply the theories, principles and capabilities to historic military campaigns to derive a greater understanding of the successful integration of Intelligence in military campaigns.

III. DISABLED STUDENT SERVICES:
In accordance with Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ACA) of 1990, if you have a disability or think you have a disability to please contact the Center for Personal Development in the Spaulding Building, Room 155 (1st Floor); 910-672-1203.

NOTE: YOU SHOULD NEVER MISS A SCHEDULED EXAM. UNLESS THE ABSENCE IS EXCUSED WITH PROPER DOCUMENTATION, THE MAKE-UP EXAM GRADE WILL BE REDUCED BY ONE LETTER GRADE AS A PENALTY FOR ABSENCE. MAKE-UP EXAMS ARE AT THE SOLE DISCRETION OF THE INSTRUCTOR.

C. SPECIAL NOTE ON ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Students should be aware that a university is a community of scholars committed to the discovery and dissemination of knowledge and truth. Without the freedom to investigate all materials, scrupulous honesty in reporting findings, and proper acknowledgment of credit, such a community cannot survive. Students are expected to adhere to the highest traditions of scholarship. Any infractions of these traditions, such as plagiarism, are not tolerated. Though we do not anticipate any such occurrence, for the record, misrepresenting someone else’s words or ideas as one’s own, constitutes plagiarism. In cases where plagiarism occurs, the instructor has the right to penalize the student(s) as he or she thinks appropriate. One guideline holds that the first offence = failure of the assignment; the second offence = failure of the course.

WHAT THIS MEANS IS THAT WHEN WRITING

1. PARAPHRASE WHAT YOU HAVE READ AND CITE THE SOURCE
2. IF YOU USE THE WORDS OF SOME ONE ELSE PUT QUOTATION MARKS AROUND IT AND CITE THE SOURCE

E. INSTRUCTOR POLICIES
1. TURNITIN
   Required papers will be turned in to the Turnitin site on the Blackboard Assignments page by midnight of the assigned due date.
   a. If the assignment is late then SUBTRACT ONE LETTER GRADE
   b. PLAGIARISM: Instructor discretion based on more than 20 percent of text plagiarized—TURNITIN shows you how much you have copied from other sources and you can revise (paraphrase) that text until midnight of the due date.

2. MAKE-UP WORK
   a. EXAMS:
      i. Unless the absence is excused with proper documentation, the make-up exam grade will be reduced by one letter grade as a penalty for absence.
      ii. Make-up exams are at the sole discretion of the instructor.
      iii. Missed exams caused by an absence must be made up WITHIN ONE WEEK unless illness or emergency necessitates a longer absence from school.
   b. No make-up work will be accepted the last week of classes.

3. EXTRA CREDIT will not be granted.

5. INCOMPLETES: As a rule, I do not give an incomplete. If you choose not to complete the class please formally withdraw from it

VI: FACULTY EXPECTATIONS
A: The instructor respects all students and will make every effort to maintain a classroom climate that promotes learning for all students. Students must accept their responsibility for maintaining a positive classroom environment by abiding by the following rules:

B. Students are responsible for material covered and due dates for assignments regardless of absence.

C. Students are expected to complete all the assigned readings before coming to class so that they can participate in class discussion or be able to ask questions for clarification.

D. Attendance and Punctuality: Students are expected to attend class. IF you are late, please try to enter unobtrusively while taking your seat. I would prefer you come late than be absent.
E. Class Participation: The participation portion of the grade is based on both attendance and participation in class discussions.

F. In class discussions, the student must be respectful of the opinions of their peers even though they disagree—agree to disagree.

G. Students should limit distractions in the classroom setting by
   1. Students should turn off pages and cell phones (at least set cell phones to vibrate).
   2. Students should not use profanity
   3. Students should not pass notes or hold personal conversations during the class discussion.

H. Consequences for Failing to Meet Behavioral Expectations:
   1. First offense: a private discussion
   2. Multiple offenses: a report to the student to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action according to the FSU Code of Student Conduct.

VII. ACADEMIC SUPPORT RESOURCES – Site any academic support resources available in this class. Use of SI, Smarthinking, Criterion, University College Learning Center
