II. Course Description: An introductory study of physical and cultural elements of the surface of the earth, emphasizing the geographic relationships and surveying the interaction between human beings and their physical environment.

III. Disabled Student Services: In accordance with Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ACA) of 1990, if you have a disability or think you have a disability to please contact the Center for Personal Development in the Spaulding Building, Room 155 (1st Floor); 910-672-1203.

V. Student Learning Outcomes
   Upon completion of this course, students will:
   - Understand and apply the four traditions (spatial, cultural, physical, and human) of geography.
   - Demonstrate increased knowledge of real world geography.
   - Gain knowledge of theories and branches of geography such as climatology, geomorphology, oceanography, and population, human, political, economic, urban and regional geography.
   - Describe and explain the components of the physical/natural environment, their spatial distribution and processes and interrelationships.
   - Better understand the physical/natural environment (hydrosphere, lithosphere, atmosphere, and biosphere) as well as the cultural/human environment (population, people’s occupations, accomplishments and cultural inheritances) of earth and clearly analyze how the physical environment relates to the human activities.

VI. Course Requirements and Evaluation Criteria
   a. Grading Scale
      The university grading scale applies:
      - A = 92% - 100% - Exceptionally High
      - B = 83% - 92% - Good
      - C = 73% - 82% - Satisfactory
      - D = 64% - 72% - Marginally Passing
      - F = 63% or less - Failing
   b. Attendance Requirements:
      Students are expected to attend the classes punctually. In Case You (students) Are Late or Absent:
      i. Official document is required for your absence excuse.
      ii. 15 minutes late to class and leaving class 15 minutes earlier will be considered to be absent unless you get prior approval by the instructor.
iii. It is your responsibility to withdraw the class according to the deadline published in the catalog. You may get “FN” grade (FN = FAILURE DUE TO NON-ATTENDANCE) without “WN” submission;

v. NEW TYPE OF GRADE: INTERIM GRADES – (New name for “midterm grade,” with additional purposes). Interim grades will be assigned from the first week of the semester until the deadline for class withdrawals. Interim grades are used for informational and warning purposes only; they are not part of your permanent transcript and have no effect on your GPA. Instructors may assign interim grade of F to warn students of poor academic performance or they may assign “X” (NO SHOW) or “EA” (EXCESSIVE ABSENCES) grades. After midterm, faculty will assign all students an interim grade of A – F to inform students of their academic status as of midterm.

vi. Children are not permitted in the classroom. Guests must have prior approval by the instructor.

vii. It is your responsibility to get the course notes, handouts, and assignments should you miss class or be late;
c. Graded Assignments and Value of Each Assignment. Students will be evaluated (graded) as indicated below:

- Attendance/Participation/Quizzes: 10%
- Assignments / Study Notes: 25% (Study Notes: Textbook Readings)
- Midterm Examination (2): 40%
- Final Examination: 25%

The grade assignments are subject to change.

There is no “F” (incomplete) grade for this course.

GRADING ASSIGNMENTS ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE

d. Policy on Missed or Late Assignments

Students are expected to take or submit assignments/tests on the date specified on the instructor’s request. The instructor reserves the right to deduct points for late assignment or not to accept late work. There is NO MAKEUP for midterm and final exam.

e. Other

Cell Phone and Electronic Entertainment Devices (Read carefully): NO LIVE CELL PHONES are permitted in the classroom (except with prior permission of the instructor). Likewise, no electronic game, CD player or other amusement or entertainment devices are permitted in the classroom. Any student coming to class with a live phone or entertainment devices WILL BE asked to leave the class promptly. We want the learning process to be carried out with as little interruptions and distractions as possible.

No Grade Change for the Class: unless the grade was submitted to university in error from the instructor. However, you have the right to appeal your grade to university:
