the School of Education has been accredited by NCATE since 1954?
all SOE Bachelor’s and Master’s programs are approved by the North Carolina Board of Education?
a student must have at least a 2.5 GPA to be admitted into, and retained in, teacher education programs?
after one semester with a GPA below 2.5, a student majoring in an education program will receive notice of academic suspension from teacher education?
after two consecutive semesters with GPA below 2.5 the student will be suspended from teacher education and not allowed to enroll in education courses?
after completing 30 to 45 credits, a student must declare on-line as a pre-education major?
a student with up to 45 credits will be advised by the SOEARC staff? (Butler 242) a student must complete field experiences as a requirement for select education courses?
a student must complete a Voluntary Disclosure Form in order to complete early field experiences?
a student must complete an application and be interviewed to be admitted to teacher education?
the program admission test has changed from PRAXIS I to the Praxis CORE Academic Skills for Educators effective July 1, 2014?
if a student earns an 1100 on the mathematics and verbal sections of the SAT or score a composite of 24 on the ACT s/he is exempt from the program admission Praxis CORE test?
a teacher education candidate must complete a Criminal Background Check in order to complete methods courses and student teaching (capstone experiences in area schools)?
a teacher education candidate must apply to, and be admitted to, teacher education and student teaching at least a full semester before s/he can student teach?
effective October 1, 2014 in order to secure licensure, all teacher education candidates majoring in elementary education and special education will complete the Foundations of Reading for North Carolina and the General Curriculum for North Carolina licensure tests instead of Praxis II?
effective August 1, 2014, all teacher education candidates in secondary education, special subjects, and middle grades programs must pass Praxis II examination/s to secure licensure?
after 90 credit hours a teacher education candidate must complete an official audit through CAPP in Banner?
apply for graduation at least one semester prior to graduation if a teacher education candidate attempts 180 credits s/he is no longer eligible for financial aid?
if you are a sophomore you should have earned at least 30 credits; 60 credits as a junior; 90 credits as a senior?
a teacher education candidate has the right to meet with his/her advisor at least twice per semester?
each secondary education major has two academic advisors - one in the content area and one in education?
a candidate majoring in middle grades education must have two areas of concentration?
departments schedule candidate information sessions each semester to share programmatic changes and answer candidates’ questions?
the Dean hosts a Dean Forum each semester to provide updates, data, and address questions/concerns?
all teacher education candidates must submit all major assessments to TaskStream for evaluation?
all pre-service teachers are required to successfully meet all standards on major assessments completed during methods courses and student teaching in order to secure license to teach in North Carolina?
the SOE is home to the only doctoral degree program on campus?
there are scholarship opportunities available through the Financial Aid Office?

Never Forget the Importance of Being a Teacher!

Leontye L. Lewis, Dean 2014-15