ANNUAL SECURITY AND FIRE SAFETY REPORT

October 1, 2014

INTRODUCTION

Fayetteville State University (FSU) is located in Fayetteville, North Carolina and is a constituent institution of the University of North Carolina. FSU had an enrollment of approximately 6,179 students for the fall 2013 semester. FSU is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for its students and employees. FSU offers various educational programs on crime, fire safety, and crime and fire prevention. Members of the campus community are encouraged to be responsible for their personal safety and that of others.

FSU is publishing this Annual Security and Fire Safety Report pursuant to the following legal requirements:

- The Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act of 1990 (Clery Act) requires higher education institutions to prepare, publish, and distribute by October 1 of each year, to all current students and employees, information pertaining to crime awareness and personal safety.
- The Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 requires higher education institutions to disclose additional security and fire safety policies and standards in their annual security report.
- The Campus Sexual Violence Elimination Act of 2013 further amends Clery to provide additional protection of student rights as they relate to sexual violence.

This 2014 Annual Security and Fire Safety Report is available at www.uncfsu.edu/police/reports or upon request to any applicant for enrollment or employment. In this report, members of the campus community will find the following:

- Information about how to prevent and report crimes;
- Information about how FSU responds to the reporting of crimes and missing persons;
- Information regarding how FSU notifies members of the campus community in the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation on campus;
- Information on how FSU secures its facilities;
- Policy statements governing the use and/or sale of alcoholic beverages and illegal drugs;
- FSU's sexual misconduct policy, educational awareness, and disciplinary procedures;
- Information relating to fire safety standards and measures that are taken by FSU; and
- Crime and fire statistics for the campus.

More detailed information on the above subjects may be obtained from the Office of Student Affairs or the FSU Department of Police and Public Safety (FSU Police Department).

ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY OF THE CAMPUS POLICE DEPARTMENT

North Carolina General Statute 116-40.5 allows for the establishment of a campus law enforcement agency with all the powers of law enforcement generally, including the power to arrest. The FSU Police Department is maintained as authorized by NCGS 116-40.5. The territorial jurisdiction of the FSU Police Department includes all property owned or leased by FSU and that portion of any public road or highway passing through such property and immediately adjoining it, wherever located.

The FSU Police Department works closely with the City of Fayetteville Police Department and the Cumberland County Sheriff's Department. The FSU Police Department has entered into a memorandum of understanding with the Fayetteville Police Department that allows the Fayetteville Police Department to assist the FSU Police Department with conducting criminal investigations. The FSU Police Department may also request investigative assistance from the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation.

CAMPUS LAW ENFORCEMENT REPORTING POLICY

The FSU Police Department encourages the prompt and accurate reporting of criminal activity. Individuals may report criminal activity by calling the FSU Police Department or by submitting the information through the department's "Online Crime Tips" form (<http://services.uncfsu.edu/departments/police/silent-witness.cfm>), which allows anonymous reporting via the FSU Police Department's website. All reports of criminal activity are investigated to the fullest extent possible.

REPORTING CRIMES/EMERGENCIES OCCURRING ON CAMPUS

Who Is Responsible for Enforcing Criminal Laws? The FSU Police Department is responsible for the emergency response, reporting of statistics, and the enforcement of laws, policies, rules and regulations set forth by the State of North Carolina, the University of North Carolina and FSU. The FSU Police Department operates a Telecommunications Center with emergency operation services 24 hours a day, 365 days a year for the purpose of responding to emergency calls for service, reporting criminal activity and other emergencies that occur on campus. The center is staffed by trained emergency services dispatchers.

How does a person report a crime? To report a crime or an emergency, an individual should either call the FSU Police Department at 910-672-1911 or Ext. 1911 or activate one of forty-three (43) standalone call boxes and fourteen (14) emergency phone boxes that are attached to buildings, which are strategically located throughout campus.

How quickly will there be a response to a crime report? If you contact 910-672-1911 or Ext. 1911, a dispatcher will answer your call. The police dispatcher is capable of instantaneously accessing the FSU Police Department, Fayetteville City Police Department, and the Cumberland County Sheriff's Department. Once contacted, the dispatcher will request specific information and dispatch FSU Police Department personnel. The dispatcher will also contact additional personnel, such as fire and emergency medical services, if needed. The Chief of Police will contact members of the FSU Administrative Staff, if such contact is needed.

Who are the other FSU personnel that may receive reports of crimes? An individual may also report a crime or an emergency to one of the following Campus Security Authorities. Campus Security Authorities must immediately inform the FSU Police Department of any Clery crime.

- Chief, FSU Police Department 910-672-2462
- FSU Police Officer 910-672-1775
- Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs 910-672-1211
- Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs 910-672-1208
- Dean of Students 910-672-1788
- Director of Residence Life 910-672-1284
- Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs 910-672-1460
- FSU Legal Counsel 910-672-1145
- Clery Compliance Officer 910-672-2951

What if a person wants to make an anonymous report or a confidential report to ensure that a crime is included in the annual statistics? Victims or witnesses may select to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential basis for statistical reporting purposes to any of the individuals listed above. Victims and witnesses may also make confidential or anonymous reports at <http://services.uncfsu.edu/departments/police/silent-witness.cfm>.

Who is responsible for ensuring that all Clery-related reports and statistics are gathered and distributed appropriately? The Clery Compliance Officer shall be forwarded all data regarding Clery crimes, shall ensure the issuance of all timely warning reports, and shall compile the statistics and draft this Annual Security Report. Contact the Clery Compliance Officer at 910-672-2951.

FSU'S RESPONSE TO REPORTED CRIMES/EMERGENCIES LOGGING REPORTS

Safety and Investigation. Upon receipt of a criminal complaint or report of an emergency, initial police actions are focused on ensuring the safety of those involved in the incident. Subsequently, an officer will interview all available witnesses to obtain information about the incident. A written report will be filed, normally the same day. The serious crimes and incidents listed in the FSU Crime Statistics of this Annual Security Report receive further investigation or action and may involve members of the Fayetteville City Police Department and/or the State Bureau of Investigation.

Timely Written Warning. Additionally, the Clery Compliance Officer will ensure the issuance of timely written warnings to the FSU community in order to inform the community of emergency or criminal incidents that may jeopardize the safety, health, and welfare of the FSU community. The timely written warnings will indicate the crime that triggered the warning and provide advice about how one might protect oneself.

Interim Suspensions for Dangerous Crimes by Students. The Code of Student Conduct also includes procedures which address cases in which students, whose presence poses a continuing danger to persons or property or an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process, may be immediately suspended by the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Other disciplinary actions against students are also taken in accordance with the Code of Student Conduct. Questions concerning these policies and procedures should be directed to the Dean of Students at lhadley@uncfsu.edu or 910-672-1788. The policies are available at www.uncfsu.edu/policy.

Daily Crime Log. FSU maintains a daily crime log that may be accessed by contacting the FSU Police Department or accessing the information online at <http://www.uncfsu.edu/police/daily-crime-logs>. The crime log must be updated within two (2) business days of the report.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATION, RESPONSE, AND EVACUATION

General Policy Statement. FSU recognizes the importance of having emergency response and evacuation procedures in the event of an on-campus emergency. The FSU Police Department, including the department's Office of Emergency Management and Environmental Safety (FSU Emergency Management), coordinates emergency response and evacuation procedures for the campus in accordance with FSU's Emergency Operation Plan (EOP). The EOP includes details about how FSU will notify the campus community in the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation on campus, publicize emergency response and evacuation procedures, and test emergency response and evacuation procedures. For more information about FSU emergency management and the EOP, visit www.uncfsu.edu/emergency.

What is the process for immediately notifying the campus upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation? The EOP outlines the process for notifying the campus of all-hazard dangerous situations. In the event that there is a significant threat of a criminal nature, FSU Police Department Policy allows the Chief of Police or his designee to immediately broadcast an alert. However, when there is a verified imminent threat of a criminal nature to the loss of life or when the potential for injuries would be exacerbated by a delayed notification, the ranking officer in the field may immediately broadcast an alert.

How does FSU confirm that there is a significant emergency or dangerous situation? In the event of a major emergency incident, the Chancellor is ultimately responsible for FSU's response to the emergency. The Emergency Management and Environmental Safety Director (EHS Director) shall serve as the senior advisor to the Chancellor in regards to all-hazard emergency operations and recovery. The decision to activate the EOP when there is a security threat shall be made by the Chancellor, in consultation with the EHS Director and the Chief of Police. In any event, if the Chancellor is not available, the line of succession shall be as follows:

- Chancellor's designee
- EHS Director
- Chief of Police or Chief's designee

Once an all-hazard emergency has been declared as described above, FSU Emergency Management will make the decision to activate all or part of the emergency notification system and determine the content of the notification that will then be made based upon the evaluation of all factors.

Nothing in this procedure shall prohibit the Chief of Police or designee from immediately notifying the campus of an immediate, significant threat of a criminal-nature to campus prior to activation of the EOP by the Chancellor.

What is the process for determining the content of the emergency notification? In the event of a significant emergency or dangerous security threat on campus, the FSU Police Department in consultation with FSU Emergency Management will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and activate the emergency notification system, unless the activation of the emergency notification system will, in the professional judgment of FSU Emergency Management, compromise efforts to assist victims or contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Describe FSU's emergency notification system. FSU has the ability to utilize multiple notification methods to inform the campus community of a significant emergency or dangerous situation on campus and to provide updates to the campus community in the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation on campus. In order to provide emergency alert messages to members of the campus community in the event of an on-campus emergency, FSU utilizes a centrally located campus siren, forty-three (43) emergency call boxes, which are strategically located throughout the campus, and an indoor emergency notification system, which is strategically located in eight buildings on campus. The siren, call boxes, and indoor emergency notification system are capable of broadcasting pre-recorded or live voice messages to the campus community. Additionally, FSU utilizes text and voice mail messaging in order to send emergency messages to members of the campus community. Members of the campus community may register to receive text and voice mail alerts on their telephones by registering their telephone number at the Bronco Alert site (<https://uncfsu.bbcportal.com/Home>), which is managed by the FSU Police Department's Emergency Management unit. In addition to the above mentioned emergency notification methods, FSU also utilizes the campus email system to send campus wide email alerts. FSU also posts messages regarding on-going campus emergencies on the FSU website, located at www.uncfsu.edu.

In the event that emergency conditions disrupt power and telephone service, emergency information and emergency communications will be profoundly restricted. Until these systems are restored, messengers, radios, and cellular phones will be used.

How does FSU determine the appropriate segment of campus to notify? FSU disseminates each emergency notification to all faculty, staff, and students of the campus.

How does FSU disseminate emergency notifications to the FSU community? The Director of Public Relations will coordinate with the Policy Group to ensure accurate and timely release of information to the FSU community and the public.

Who is responsible for carrying out the emergency notifications? The responsible departments to carry-out the above emergency notification systems are as following. These notifications will be deployed appropriately upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on the campus:

- Outdoor Warning Sirens (FSU Police Department)
- Emergency Call Boxes (FSU Police Department)
- Text Messaging (Office of Public Relations)
- Email (Office of Public Relations)
- FSU Web Page and Bronco Alert (www.uncfsu.edu) (Office of Public Relations)
- Television-On Campus Bulletin Board Channel 12 (Office of Public Relations)
- WFSS Radio Station (Office of Public Relations)
- News Releases (Office of Public Relations)
- Building Fire Alarms (Any individual)

How does FSU publicize emergency response and evacuation procedures? FSU publicizes emergency response and evacuation procedures on an on-going basis by posting on the FSU policy website at www.uncfsu.edu/policy and at least annually in the Annual Security Report. In addition, the FSU emergency management website (www.uncfsu.edu/emergency) provides information about the various emergency alert notification options that are used by FSU. Additionally, it provides information on the location of call boxes on the FSU campus. The site also provides information on emergency preparedness and evacuation procedures. FSU also includes a web link to this Annual Security Report and to the FSU EOP with each announced test notification.

What are FSU's procedures for testing the emergency response system? FSU conducts a minimum of two (2) announced or unannounced tests per year of the emergency response and evacuation procedures. In addition to these tests of the emergency response and evacuation procedures, tests of the campus call boxes are conducted. Additionally, the emergency siren is programmed to conduct a self-test each day. Currently, each test of the emergency response and evacuation procedures requires documentation of the name of the exercise, the date, the time and whether it was announced or unannounced.

CAMPUS SECURITY AND CRIME PREVENTION PROGRAMS

In order to educate employees and students about crime prevention measures, the FSU community relies heavily on crime prevention programs presented by the FSU Police Department's Crime Prevention Unit, the Department of Residence Life, and the Center for Personal Development. Throughout the year 2013, officers and Student Affairs professionals conduct informational and educational programs on the following topics:

- Shots Fired! – Response to an Active Shooter [Over 20 sessions provided to new faculty and staff or freshmen]
- Safe Sex on the Beach (Alcohol Awareness & Safe Sex Practices) [1 session]
- R.A.D.-Rape Aggression Defense (Self-defense Program) [2 sessions (9-12 hours each)]
- Safer Sex - What You Don't Know Can Hurt You? [6 sessions]
- FSU Student Athlete Marijuana Prevention Workshop [1 session]

- Alcohol and Other Drugs Workshop [12 sessions]
- Alcohol Awareness Peer Mentoring Training [8 sessions]
- Actions vs. Consequences (Preventing crimes on or off campus) [6 sessions]
- Anti-Bullying Awareness [1 session]
- Crime Prevention Security Tips [Throughout the Year]
- Operation Identification (Prevention of Theft and Burglary) [10 sessions]
- Responsibility: Alcohol-Drugs and Sex [2 sessions]
- Safety Bulletins/flyers–information placed on car windshields and doors, used for awareness and prevention [Throughout the Year]
- Protecting Minors On-Campus: FSU Policy, Clery, Title IX, and Other Concerns [1 session]
- FSU Title IX Updates for Student Leaders [1 session]
- FSU Title IX Update for Residence Life Staff [1 session]

Similar programming will be offered throughout 2014. Contact the FSU Police Department [910-672-1775] or the Division of Student Affairs [910-672-1208] for details about the 2014 programs. Upon request, crime prevention educational materials are also provided for students and employees through the FSU Office of Residence Life, FSU Center for Personal Development, FSU Police Department, and FSU Human Resources.

MISSING RESIDENTIAL STUDENT PROCEDURES

Residential Students have the option to confidentially identify an individual, and that individual's telephone number(s), to be contacted by FSU not later than 24 hours after the time that the student is determined missing by law enforcement personnel. The Residential Student may designate a contact that is not the same emergency contact typically identified in the broader FSU record. The Department of Residence Life collects and maintains such confidential contact information. Residential Students are responsible for ensuring that the contact information is up-to-date and accurate. The confidential information shall be accessible only to authorized campus officials, and shall not be disclosed to anyone other than law enforcement personnel in furtherance of a missing person investigation.

Residential Students are given the opportunity to provide such confidential contact information at the beginning of each academic year or prior to moving into FSU owned or leased housing.

Residential Students, who are under 18 years of age and not emancipated individuals, are informed that FSU is required to notify a custodial parent or guardian of the Residential Students not later than 24 hours after the time the FSU Police Department determines the Residential Student to be missing.

Any FSU employee, student, or other individual who receives information that a Residential Student is missing, or has independent knowledge that a Residential Student is missing, should immediately refer the information or evidence to the Department of Residence Life. The Department of Residence Life shall notify the FSU Police Department not later than 24 hours after the time a Residential Student is reported missing, unless the FSU Police Department was the entity that made the determination that the student is missing. If the FSU Police Department is initially contacted, the FSU Police Department shall notify the Director of the Department of Residence Life, whose staff will determine whether the student is a Residential Student. If the student is not a Residential Student, the FSU Police Department will contact the relevant outside law enforcement agencies.

In the event that a Residential Student is identified as a missing person, FSU Police Department personnel will file the appropriate reports and begin an investigation to determine the student's location. If additional assistance is needed in conducting the investigation or locating the student, FSU Police Department personnel will request assistance from other law enforcement agencies. Once police personnel have determined that the student is missing and have gathered identifying information, the student will be entered into the National Criminal Information Center (NCIC) database as a missing person.

Once the FSU Police Department has been notified, the Residence Hall Director will notify the Dean of Students. Not later than 24 hours after a determination by the FSU Police Department that a Residential Student is missing and has not returned to campus, the Dean of Students shall contact the student's parents if the student is under age eighteen and not emancipated. Regardless of age, not later than 24 hours after a determination that a Residential Student is missing, the Dean of Students will notify the student's designated confidential contact.

ACCESS TO AND SECURITY OF CAMPUS FACILITIES

Instructional and Administrative Facilities

Normally, the public may access instructional and administrative facilities during regular business hours. After regular business hours, the FSU Police Department secures these facilities. The general public cannot access the facilities after regular business hours.

Deans and vice chancellors may request keys to their facilities. Key control is also delegated to these individuals and facilities are rekeyed upon their request. Only these individuals are provided keys to exterior doors. FSU Police Department personnel may provide access to employees without keys, but not without first viewing a picture identification and then ascertaining their FSU affiliation.

FSU Police Department personnel also frequently patrol the grounds and facilities after hours to observe any suspicious activity. While patrolling these areas, officers look for damage to security hardware, non-operational lights, and other potential security problems. In addition to police personnel physically patrolling the campus, there are over 340 security cameras located throughout the campus. Dispatchers with the FSU Police Department regularly monitor these cameras.

In addition to the above mentioned security measures, lighting surveys are conducted frequently to assess walkways, corridors, and shrubbery throughout the campus.

Athletic Facilities

Security related to major athletic and entertainment events held in FSU athletic facilities is under the jurisdiction of the Department of Athletics in coordination with the FSU Police Department.

Residence Life Facilities

Each student is issued a key or access card, which allows the student access to his/her residence hall room and the locked exterior doors. Keys and access cards remain FSU property. Keys and access cards are issued at the beginning of the semester and are collected when the student's residence life contract is terminated. Students who lose their keys or access cards and who do not return them at the end of the semester are charged for the cost of changing the lock. Locks are changed within twenty-four (24) hours of the resident notifying the hall director or the Director of Residence Life of a lost key.

SECURITY CONSIDERATIONS USED IN THE MAINTENANCE OF CAMPUS FACILITIES

Athletic, Instructional, and Administrative Facilities

Building managers are assigned to athletic, instructional, and administrative facilities. The building manager is responsible for inspecting the assigned building and the reporting of any maintenance or repair needs to FSU's Facilities, Maintenance, Planning and Construction (Facilities) Department. Upon receipt of the request for maintenance or repair, a work order is issued to the appropriate shop within Facilities.

Residence Life Facilities

Students are responsible for notifying the residence hall director or the Director of Residence Life when they discover maintenance or repair needs within the residence halls.

When a work request is received, the request is forwarded to Facilities. Facilities will then assign a maintenance technician to complete the needed maintenance or repairs. After normal business hours, residence hall staff report requests for emergency repairs to the building manager. The building manager will ensure that Facilities is contacted.

MONITORING AND RECORDING CRIMINAL ACTIVITY ENGAGED IN BY RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AT OFF-CAMPUS PROPERTIES

There are no recognized off-campus student properties associated with FSU.

POLICIES GOVERNING ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES AND ILLEGAL DRUGS

Possession, Use and Sale of Alcoholic Beverages Possession, Use and Sale of Illegal Drugs

The sale of alcoholic beverages at FSU is strictly prohibited. The serving of alcohol at FSU sponsored events must conform to the laws of the State of North Carolina, the City of Fayetteville, and the FSU policy on the serving of alcohol at FSU sponsored events. Unless otherwise stated in FSU policy, alcoholic beverages are prohibited on any portion of the FSU property including, but not limited to, residence halls, parking lots, the student center, the football stadium, and the Health and Physical Education complex. The FSU Police Department enforces all laws relating to underage consumption of alcohol.

Illegal drugs are prohibited on the campus of FSU. This includes the possession, sale, distribution, or consumption of any alcoholic beverage and/or illegal drugs. The FSU Police Department is also responsible for enforcing federal and state drug laws.

FSU disciplinary proceedings will be instituted against students and employees who violate FSU policies regarding the possession, use, and sale of alcoholic beverages and/or illegal drugs. Penalties will be imposed, in accordance with the disciplinary policy, for violations of FSU's alcohol and drug policy. The penalties for violations of the FSU alcohol and drug policy range from written warnings to expulsion from enrollment or discharge from employment.

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Educational Programs

The FSU Center for Personal Development conducts drug and alcohol education programs for students. The Center for Personal Development also provides counseling, support, and referrals for students seeking help with substance abuse problems. In addition, the Center sponsors an annual Drug Awareness Week and provides classroom and residence hall presentations.

The drug and alcohol abuse awareness programs conducted in 2013 are as following:

- Marijuana Prevention Campus-wide Outreach/Behavioral Health Public Service Announcement Campaign
- FSU Student Athlete Marijuana Prevention Workshop
- Alcohol and Other Drugs Workshop
- FSU Alcohol Awareness Peer Mentors: "Tales from the Yard: A Bedtime Story"
- Alcohol EDU
- Responsibility: Alcohol-Drugs and Sex

The Athletic Department provides drug and alcohol abuse seminars for all student athletes. The Athletic Department also conducts random drug screening as required by the NCAA and the University of North Carolina system.

The State Employees' Assistance Program provides free, confidential assessment, counseling, consultation, and referral service for all employees through a 3rd party vendor ComPsych. To request such services, call the confidential hotline 1-866-465-8933. Contact the FSU Employee Relations Manager at 910-672-1455 for more information.

In its continuing efforts to adhere to the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act and the Drug Free Workplace Act and to demonstrate its primary commitment to drug and alcohol education, counseling, and rehabilitation, as well as its determination to impose penalties in the event of a violation of State or federal laws governing illegal drugs and alcohol, FSU has adopted an illegal drugs and alcohol policy. The Illegal Drugs and Alcohol policy is located online at <http://www.uncfsu.edu/policy>.

Additionally, each year, the FSU Chancellor notifies all employees and students of FSU's position on illegal drugs and alcohol. The notification includes a description of the health risks associated with the use of illegal drugs and the abuse of alcohol; a description in summary form of the applicable legal sanctions for the unlawful possession or distribution of illegal drugs; and a description in summary form of FSU sanctions that will be imposed, at a minimum, for the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illegal drugs by students or employees on FSU property or as a part of any FSU activity. The notification letter is located online at www.uncfsu.edu/policy.

SEXUAL OFFENSES (MISCONDUCT)

General Policy Statement

Sexual violence will not be tolerated nor condoned by FSU. FSU's policy on sexual misconduct prohibits not only those acts commonly understood to constitute sexual violence but all attempts to coerce sexual activity as well. For the purposes of this Annual Security Report, sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to, the sexual offenses of rape, acquaintance rape, or any other forcible or non-forcible sex offense that is criminal in nature.

Procedures To Follow If A Sexual Offense Occurs

If you are a victim of sexual misconduct, you should do the following:

1. Contact law enforcement (672-1911). However, victims have the right to decline to report to law enforcement and may report to the Dean of Students (672-1788), a staff member at FSU's Center for Personal Development (672-1222), or any other campus security authority. If the sexual misconduct occurred on or off campus, you may file a report with the appropriate law enforcement agency by calling 911.
2. Preserve all evidence. Do not wash or otherwise cleanse any body parts or clothing.
3. Remain in your clothes (or if clothes have been changed, retain all clothing worn when the offense was committed).
4. Do not disturb anything in the location where the sexual misconduct took place.
5. If possible, remain in the general location where the sexual misconduct took place until police arrive.

Victim's Rights

Anonymous reports and confidential non-anonymous reports are acceptable for informational purposes, even if the victim does not want to pursue criminal charges against the alleged perpetrator or if the report is not made by the victim. The victim is encouraged to initially provide as much information and evidence as possible, even if s/he does not wish to pursue criminal charges, in the event that the victim later decides to pursue criminal charges. Regardless of whether the victim files charges, FSU is under an obligation to pursue steps to limit the effects of any sexual misconduct and to prevent recurrence.

Campus security authorities and campus counselors will inform victims of their right to pursue criminal charges and/or file a Title IX complaint in the case of sexual misconduct. All student victims of student-perpetrated sexual misconduct will be informed of their rights to file complaints under the FSU Sexual Misconduct Policy. More details about the policies and procedures are located at <http://www.uncfsu.edu/legal-affairs/title-ix>.

In addition, the FSU Police Department is responsible for enforcing any victim's order of protection, no contact order, restraining order, or similar lawful order issued by FSU or a criminal, civil, or tribal court.

Victim's Option to Notify Appropriate Authorities.

If requested, FSU Police Department personnel will assist a victim with filing a police report. Any victim who alleges that a sexual offense has been committed against him/her has the right to file charges with law enforcement authority. The FSU Police Department offers assistance to victims in filing complaints with the FSU Police Department and outside police agencies. If the victim consents, the FSU Police Department should also report any incident of sexual misconduct to the Title IX coordinator. A victim has the right to file an anonymous complaint or to make a confidential complaint for statistical reporting purposes with any campus security authority or at <http://services.uncfsu.edu/departments/police/silent-witness.cfm>.

Notice of Existing On and Off-Campus Services for Victims

Services for victims of sexual misconduct are offered both on and off campus.

On-campus services include:

- The Center for Personal Development (Center) (910-672-1222). The Center provides counseling to students who are victims of any sexual misconduct and makes referrals to community resources. The Center also assists victims in notifying proper authorities, to including changing living and academic arrangements, if requested. The Center's consultations with victims are confidential.
- Student Health Services (910-672-1259). The staff at Student Health Services may provide medical treatment and referrals to community agencies. The staff also may assist victims in notifying proper authorities, if the student so chooses. If requested by the victim, Student Health Services staff will provide reasonably available options for and assistance in changing the living and/or academic environment for the victim. Student Health Services consultations are confidential.

- The Department of Residence Life (910-672-1884). If requested by the victim, the Residence Life staff will provide reasonably available options for and assistance in changing the living environment for the victim.
- Title IX Coordinators. If the victim has questions or would like to file a Title IX complaint, the victim may contact one of the FSU Title IX coordinators. The Chief Title IX Compliance Coordinator can be reached at 910-672-1679. For additional contact information, visit the following website: <http://www.uncfsu.edu/legal-affairs/title-ix>. If requested by the victim, the Title IX Coordinators will search for reasonably available options for and assistance in changing the living and/or academic environment for the victim.
- Division of Student Affairs Dean of Students Office (910-6721788). If requested by the victim, the Office of the Dean of Students staff will seek reasonably available options for and assistance in changing the living and/or academic environment for the victim.
- Campus Security Authorities:
 - (1) Chief of FSU Police Department 910-672-2462
 - (2) FSU Police Officer 910-672-1911* and 910-672-1775*
 - (3) Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs 910-672-1211
 - (4) Associate Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs 910-672-1208

Sexual Misconduct Awareness Programs

Educational programs concerning issues such as date rape, acquaintance rape, domestic violence, and other forcible and non-forcible sexual misconduct are presented throughout the year by FSU's Center for Personal Development and FSU Police Department. The following programs were conducted in 2013:

- Safe Sex on the Beach (Alcohol Awareness & Safe Sex Practices)
- R.A.D.-Rape Aggression Defense (Self-defense Program)
- Safer Sex - What You Don't Know Can Hurt You?
- Responsibility: Alcohol-Drugs and Sex
- Protecting Minors On-Campus: FSU Policy, Clery, Title IX, and Other Concerns
- FSU Title IX Policy Updates for Student Leaders
- FSU Title IX Policy Update for Residence Life Staff

For more information on individual programs, contact the Center for Personal Development at 672-1222.

Campus Disciplinary Procedures

The primary objective of the FSU disciplinary system is to respond to violations of FSU conduct policies and procedures, including sexual misconduct. Full details of the policies and procedures related to these offenses can be located at the following website: <http://www.uncfsu.edu/legal-affairs/title-ix>.

The FSU Sexual Misconduct Policy recognizes that student-on-student sexual offenses are grounds for disciplinary action. The Sexual Misconduct Policy provides, in part, that when a sex offense is alleged, the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during a disciplinary proceeding. In addition, both the accuser and the accused must be informed of the final outcome of any institutional disciplinary proceeding that is brought alleging a sex offense. Compliance with this paragraph does not constitute a violation the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). For the purposes of this paragraph, the word "outcome" means only the FSU final determination with regard to the alleged sex offense and any sanction that is imposed against an accused.

Under the Sexual Misconduct Policy, the following sanctions, individually or collectively, may be imposed if an accused is found guilty of a sex offense:

- Expulsion
- Suspension
- No Contact Order
- Disciplinary Eviction from a Residence Hall
- Counseling
- Disciplinary Probation
- Community Service
- Restitution
- Restriction of On-Campus Privileges

Written Reprimand

Sexual misconduct allegations that do not involve student-on-student misconduct shall be reviewed, investigated and resolved in accordance with FSU policy.

Alcohol and Drug Use Related to Sexual Misconduct

The FSU community believes that excessive use of alcohol and other drugs often precede incidents of sexual misconduct. Use of these substances may interfere with one's capacity, either to consent to or refuse sexual activity. Use of alcohol and drugs may also interfere with one's judgment regarding sexual aggression. The use of alcohol or other drugs does not diminish personal responsibility for aggressive or any other socially unacceptable behavior.

Title IX

Title IX states that “no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefit of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.” 20 U.S.C. 1681

Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any federally funded education program or activity. In complying with Title IX, FSU prohibits discrimination in its programs and activities on the basis of sex. Additionally, FSU will not tolerate sex discrimination as it pertains to sexual harassment and sexual misconduct, including sexual offenses.

FSU has developed policies to address all forms of sexual discrimination, harassment, and violence. For more details about the policies, visit <http://www.uncfso.edu/legal-affairs/title-ix>.

FSU has designated a Chief Title IX Coordinator with ultimate oversight responsibility for coordinating FSU's Title IX compliance efforts. FSU has also designated five (5) other employees as coordinators (Deputy Title IX Coordinators). Their responsibilities include conducting and or coordinating investigations of complaints received pursuant to Title IX; ensuring a fair and neutral process for all parties; and monitoring all aspects of FSU's Title IX compliance program as it relates to their individual areas.

Anyone wishing to file a complaint may contact one of the Title IX Coordinators as following:

Information Regarding Registered Sex Offenders

The North Carolina General Assembly created the North Carolina Sex Offender and Public Protection Registry in January 1996. This law outlines registration requirements for persons living in North Carolina, non-resident students and non-resident workers. The Registry serves as a resource to help protect and inform the public.

A list of registered sex offenders is made available by the state authorities to the FSU Police Department that has jurisdiction where the institution of higher education is located. For information about registered sex offenders in the State of North Carolina, you may visit the website for the North Carolina Offender Registry at <http://sexoffender.ncdoj.gov> and the U.S. Department of Justice National Sex Offender Quick Search website www.nsopw.gov. If an individual does not have access to the web site, such information can be obtained from the FSU Police Department, the Fayetteville Police Department, or the Cumberland County Sheriff's Department.

SUMMARY

Members of the campus community should find the information contained in this report on how to prevent and report crimes helpful. More detailed information on any of the subjects discussed in this report may be obtained from the FSU Division of Student Affairs and/or the FSU Police Department. This Annual Security Report, which includes the annual crime statistics, is available for Review at <http://www.uncfsu.edu/police/reports.htm> or by contacting the FSU Police Department.

ANNUAL FIRE SAFETY REPORT

FIRE SAFETY STANDARDS AND MEASURES

FSU maintains residential housing on the main campus consisting of eight (8) residence halls. Additionally, FSU leases apartments at the University Place Apartments (UPA) for residential housing. Each residence hall is equipped with smoke detectors and heat detectors in each individual student room and in the common areas of the buildings. Additionally, all residence halls are equipped with a fire sprinkler system. All residential housing facilities are equipped with fire alarm systems.

The fire alarm systems are monitored by an alarm monitoring service. Residential housing facilities have audible local alarms to notify residents of alarms or system malfunctions. The fire alarm system is also equipped to notify the alarm monitoring service in the event of a malfunction or trouble signal. FSU Police Department personnel are the only personnel authorized to silence or deactivate an alarm. Police personnel are only authorized to silence or deactivate a fire alarm after conducting a check of the building. In addition to fire detection systems, fire extinguishers are located throughout the residence halls. Residence hall staff conducts monthly Health and Safety Inspections to ensure that residential hall fire safety equipment is operational.

FIRE DRILLS AND FIRE SAFETY EDUCATION

FSU recognizes the importance of preparing students residing in on-campus residential facilities for a fire in a residential facility. In an effort to prepare residential students for a fire in a residence hall, FSU utilizes both mandatory supervised fire drills and fire safety educational programs.

Per North Carolina Fire Code 404.2, an approved fire safety and evacuation plan shall be prepared and maintained for Group R-2 buildings for colleges such as FSU. As part of FSU's plan to comply with this code, FSU currently conducts a minimum of four mandatory supervised fire drills, one per quarter in each residence hall, and one drill annually for all non-residence buildings. Emergency Management in coordination with Residence Life coordinates each fire drill. Additionally, members of the Department of Residence Life staff conduct an assessment of each drill.

In an effort to educate students about fire safety in residence halls, FSU conducts a fire safety education programs every year. During these programs, FSU officials inform students of the locations of fire extinguishers, the locations of fire alarm pull stations, building evacuation procedures, evacuation assembly areas, and residential housing policies relating to fire safety, the use and misuse of fire/heat and smoke detection systems, the use and misuse of fire alarms systems, fire drills, and policies relating to the use of various types of equipment, such as electric heaters, hot plates, candles, etc., within the residential facility. A fire safety awareness workshop is also conducted for new students during Freshman Orientation Week and refresher training is provided during the spring of each year. In addition to providing fire safety education programs to residential students, residence hall staff receive training regarding fire safety and evacuation procedures at a minimum of two times per year.

FIRE REPORTING AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

FSU Department of Residence Life has procedures for students and staff to follow in the event of a fire in or near on campus residential facilities. These procedures address the reporting of fires and the evacuation of residential facilities in the event of a fire. Procedures for reporting fires in residential facilities and evacuating residential facilities in the event of a fire are presented to students and staff through fire safety education programs that are conducted a minimum of two times per year. To report a fire for statistical purposes after the fire has occurred and been extinguished, contact the EHS Director at (910) 672-1456. Report active fires immediately to 910-672-1911 or ext. 1911.

Procedures for students and staff to follow in the event of a fire in a residential facility include immediately initiating an evacuation of the building by pulling the nearest fire alarm pull station, which activates the audible fire alarm. After activating the fire alarm system, the student or staff member should then immediately notify emergency personnel by calling the FSU Police Department's emergency telephone number, which is 910-672-1911 or extension 1911, or by contacting the Fayetteville Fire Department's emergency dispatch center by dialing 911. After activating the alarm system and calling for emergency assistance, the student or staff member should use a fire extinguisher to extinguish the fire and/or assist any person with special needs in evacuating or moving into the stairwell area, which is protected by fire door, if they can do so safely. All students and staff members should evacuate the building and report to the predetermined assembly area for the residence facility from which they are evacuating. Elevators should not be used when evacuating the residential facility. After arriving at the predetermined assembly area, Residence Life staff will account for residents utilizing a roster of the current students assigned to the residential facility evacuated. Once the building has been evacuated, students and staff will not return to the building until clearance to re-enter the building has been given by a facility maintenance engineer, Residence Life management, and the fire department.

In the event of an active fire in a residential facility, emergency personnel, including the FSU Police Department and the Fayetteville Fire Department, should be notified immediately by calling the FSU Police Department's emergency telephone number, which is 910-672-1911 or Extension 1911, or by contacting the Fayetteville Fire Department's emergency dispatch center by dialing 911. The Department of Residence Life should also be notified of any fires occurring in residential facilities.

In the event that evidence is discovered of a previous fire within a residential facility, the FSU Police Department and the FSU Department of Residence Life should be contacted immediately.

FIRE SAFETY RELATED POLICIES

FSU Department of Residence Life prohibits smoking and the use of electrical equipment and other items, which could pose a potential fire safety hazard, in residential facilities. Smoking in any FSU facility is strictly prohibited. FSU specifically prohibits the use of grills, hot plates, toasters, George Foreman grills, candles, oil lamps, kerosene immersion heaters, incense, electric blankets, electric heaters, and electric ceiling fans in residential facilities. Extension cords are prohibited in residential facilities with the exception of one (1) multi-outlet extension cord with built-in breakers or surge protector per resident.

FSU has a residential hall contract with students which strictly prohibits the touching or hanging of items from sprinkler heads, tampering with smoke and/or fire/heat sensors, and tampering with fire alarm systems.

HEALTH AND SAFETY INSPECTIONS

Health and safety inspections of residence halls are conducted on a regular basis by members of the FSU Department of Residence Life staff. Duly authorized agents and representatives of the FSU have the right to enter housing space for the purpose of inspection, maintenance, emergency situations, health and wellness matters, and fire safety. Students may be fined or subject to disciplinary action through the FSU's judicial system for violations of residential housing regulations and campus policies.

FIRE SYSTEM IMPROVEMENTS

FSU regularly assesses the need for improvements and/or additions to the fire safety systems in residential housing facilities.

FIRE SAFETY LOG AND ANNUAL STATISTICS

FSU maintains a fire safety log, which includes information related to all fires that occurred in on-campus student housing facilities. The fire log is updated within two (2) business days of the fire. The fire safety log is open to the public and is available for viewing by members of the campus community and the public. In addition to the fire safety log, FSU annually completes a fire safety report, which includes information regarding all fires that occurred in on-campus student housing facilities. This annual report is published and made available to the campus community and to the public no later than October 1st of each year. The report includes fire safety information and statistics for the previous calendar year and the two (2) prior calendar years. The fire safety log and the Annual Fire Safety Report, which includes the annual fire statistics, are available for review at <http://www.uncfsu.edu/police/reports.htm> or by contacting the FSU Police Department.
