THREAT OF VIOLENCE – Near the Rudolph Jones Student Center

November 6, 2016

On Sunday, November 6th, 2016, the Fayetteville State University Police and Public Safety Department received notification of an alleged criminal act that occurred at approximately 10:19 p.m. The student victims reported being approached by the suspect in the parking lot next to the Rudolph Jones Student Center, and having a gun pointed at them. The suspect fled the area in his vehicle and was apprehended by officers of the Fayetteville State University Police Department moments later.

The suspect is a white male, in his early 30s, close shaven hair, driving a 2013 Chevrolet Malibu with tinted windows. The suspect is in custody and being processed and his name will be released when he is officially charged.

If you have any information that might be helpful in this investigation, or have seen the suspect and/or his vehicle on the Fayetteville State University campus please contact the Fayetteville State University Police and Public safety Department at \(910\) 672-1775, the Fayetteville City Police Department at \(910\) 433-1529, or Crime Stoppers at \(910\) 483-8477. Anonymous information is welcomed. The university has an “affirmative duty” to warn persons associated with this university of possible peril at the hands of some third party or parties.

Students, staff, and faculty should carefully consider their surroundings and stay cognizant of those around them. If you observe suspicious activity, immediately contact the Fayetteville State University Police Department.

A Bronco alert was not sent on this incident because the suspect was immediately apprehended after the crime was committed.
