TIMELY NOTIFICATION BULLETIN
Possible Threat to the Students and Employees
“Your Right to Know”
March 23, 2016

In compliance with the provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, the Fayetteville State University (FSU) Campus Police are giving notice of an alleged act of violence reported to have occurred on the campus of Fayetteville State University.

On Thursday, March 10, 2016, the Fayetteville State University Police Department was notified of an alleged incident in which a resident of one hall received threats from the suspect(s) via written communication. Since the initial incident, the victim has received additional threats that have also named and threatened other individuals. These threats have been delivered via written and electronic communication, thereby establishing a pattern that constitutes criminal stalking. The threats appear to be isolated to one residence hall. However, there appears to be a continuing threat that the campus should notice.

The suspect(s) is unknown at this time.

If you have any information that might be helpful in this investigation, please contact the Fayetteville State University Police Department at (910) 672-1775, the Fayetteville City Police Department at (910) 433-1529, or Crime Stoppers at (910) 483-8477. Anonymous information is welcomed. The university has an “affirmative duty” to warn persons associated with this university of possible peril at the hands of some third party or parties.

Students, staff, and faculty should carefully consider their surroundings and stay cognizant of those around them. If you observe suspicious activity, immediately contact the Fayetteville State University Police Department.
