

FSU Ranks Among The 35 Most Affordable Bachelor's in Criminology for 2020

Great Value Colleges stated that Fayetteville State University has been named to the ranking of the 35 Most Affordable Bachelor's in Criminology for 2020.

The rankings are determined by using data collected from College Navigator regarding tuition, as well as program information gleaned directly from each institution's official website. For more sizeable rankings, the methodology used to determine placement is based primarily on tuition but also considers things like student/faculty, ROI, customization within the degree program both in content and format, and an overall "wow" factor which highlights each program's unique offerings and sets it apart from the pack.

FSU, which placed 30th, was selected not only for the program's affordability but also for the institution's overall outstanding reputation, its faculty's excellence, and the unerring commitment to providing students a high-quality education and in doing so, giving them all the tools that they need to achieve their future career goals.

Great Value Colleges compiles these rankings in an effort to contribute to the academic mission of higher learning institutions. They provide pertinent, unbiased information for prospective students and working professionals to aid them in making more informed decisions as they seek to further their education.
