Parent and Family Council

Objective: The Bronco Parent & Family Council serves as a resource for all Bronco families by enhancing the university experience for both students and families. It offers a way for members to:

- Take an active role in planning and organizing Bronco Family Association events;
- Offer valuable feedback to University administrators;
- Connect with other Bronco families;
- Share special Bronco experiences with their student(s)

How do I become part of the Council?

To be eligible to become a Parent and Family Council member, you must meet the following requirements:

- Be a parent, family member, or spouse of a currently enrolled Fayetteville State student. The student may be of any class standing, and may be a traditional or transfer student;
- Be a member of the Parent & Family Association; and
- Complete a Bronco Parent and Family Council Application.

For more information contact Naadiya Hopkins, nhopkins@uncfsu.edu!
