

Center for Community Justice & Service Learning

Attention Students

Have you considered adding service learning to your academic experience?

What is Service Learning?

A teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service with instruction and reflection to enrich the learning experience, teach civic responsibility, and strengthen communities.

Service learning courses are available in many academic disciplines

How do students benefit from service learning?

- ❖ Hands-on use of skills and knowledge that increases relevance of academic material
- ❖ Interaction with people from diverse cultures and lifestyles
- ❖ Valuable and competitive career guidance and experience
- ❖ Increased civic responsibility
- ❖ Personal sense of fulfillment and accomplishment
- ❖ Opportunities for meaningful involvement with the local community
- ❖ Increased sense of self-efficacy, analytical skills and social

How do students participate in service learning?

By registering for classes that offer service learning as a part of the curriculum as indicated by course section code SL.

For a list of service-learning courses call or visit:

Center for Community Justice & Service Learning
1047 Murchison Road
Suite 100
Bronco Square
(910) 672 - 2460

To learn more about service-learning opportunities please contact:

*Melissa Lyon
Service Learning Program Manager
(910) 672- 2484
MLLyon01@uncfsu.edu*