City Seeking Boards and Commissions Applicants

(Fayetteville, N.C.) – The City of Fayetteville is seeking applicants for several boards and commissions, including the newly added Residential Rental Property Review Board.

The Residential Rental Property Review Board needs seven volunteers to serve. The board will hear appeals from an owner of residential rental property who is required to register, due to disorderly activity and/or whose registration has been revoked. The members of the board will be representative of the residential rental, tenant and homeowner community.

Other boards and commissions that need applicants are the Airport Commission, Board of Adjustment, Board of Appeals on Dwellings and Buildings, Human Relations Commission, Metropolitan Housing Authority, Planning Commission, Public Arts Commission, Public Works Commission, Senior Citizens Advisory Board, Fayetteville Advisory Committee on Transit, Wrecker Review Board and Zoning Commission.

Applicants must be Fayetteville city residents.

Descriptions of each board, including their purpose, meeting date and location and term limit, are listed in the Boards and Commissions brochure on the City of Fayetteville website at: http://www.ci.fayetteville.nc.us/boards_and_commissions/.

Applications can also be found at the same link or by calling (910) 433-1989. Applications can be emailed to the City Clerk’s Office at cityclerk@ci.fay.nc.us, faxed to (910) 433-1980 or brought to the City Clerk’s Office on the second floor of City Hall, located at 433 Hay St.
