

Chancellor's Distinguished Speakers Series 2012-2013 Frequently Asked Questions

STUDENTS

1. Where do I pick up my tickets? Tickets are available at the campus ticket office located in the lobby of Seabrook Auditorium on the campus of Fayetteville State University. For more information about the ticket office, please visit <http://www.unctsu.edu/seabrook/contact.htm>.
2. Why are tickets now required? Seabrook Auditorium has a capacity of 1,134. When the facility reaches capacity we have turned people away. In an effort to avoid that, we are distributing tickets. It will help us better with logistical planning for these events and improve the overall experience of those attending our event.
3. What do I need to get a ticket? Your student identification card is required. It will be swiped in order to provide a record of your receipt of the ticket.
4. Is there a ticket limit? Yes. Each person is allowed one ticket and a ticket is needed for each person sitting in a seat.
5. Is there a special entrance for students on event days? Yes. Students should enter and exit via the door on the far left. A card reader will be placed at this location so that you can swipe your cards when exiting.
6. When can I pick up tickets?
  - a. Fraser- September 4th
  - b. Sharpton- August 30th
  - c. Wolfenbarger- October 15th
  - d. Zellner- January 2nd
  - e. West- January 7th
7. When is the latest I can pick up tickets for an event? If tickets are still available, you will be able to get them up until 4 p.m. on the day of the event.
8. Will I receive extra credit for attending? In general yes, the option of offering extra credit is available to faculty. The final decision is the faculty members'.

GENERAL PUBLIC, FACULTY, STAFF

1. How much is the event? The Chancellor's Distinguished Speakers Series is free.
2. Are tickets required? Yes, beginning with the 2012-2013 series, tickets will be required for each event.
3. Why are tickets now required? Seabrook Auditorium has a capacity of 1,134. When the facility reaches capacity we have turned people away. In an effort to avoid that, we are distributing tickets. It will help us better with logistical planning for these events and improve the overall experience of those attending our event.
4. Where do I get tickets? Tickets are available at the campus ticket office located in the lobby of Seabrook Auditorium on the campus of Fayetteville State University. For more information about the ticket office, please visit <http://www.unctsu.edu/seabrook/contact.htm>.

5. Is there a ticket limit? Yes. Each person is allowed one ticket and a ticket will be required for each person sitting in a seat.
6. Can tickets be acquired online? No.
7. Are group tickets available? In general yes, however for one or two high demand events, this option will not be available. If you are interested in acquiring group tickets for an event, please contact Emily Dickens at 910-672-2101 or edickens@uncfsu.edu.
8. When can I pick up tickets?
  - a. Fraser- September 4th
  - b. Sharpton- September 4th
  - c. Wolfenbarger- October 15th
  - d. Zellner- January 2nd
  - e. West- January 22nd
9. Are passes available to the media? Yes. Please contact Jeff Womble at 910-672-1474 or jwomble@uncfsu.edu.
10. Is there a waiting list for sold out events? No.
11. Can I get another ticket if my ticket is lost? No.
12. When is the latest I can pick up tickets for an event? If tickets are still available, you will be able to get them up until 4 p.m. on the day of the event.
13. Is food or drink allowed in the facility? No.
14. Where can I park? Parking is available directly behind Seabrook Auditorium and in other campus lots. On event days, extra spaces in the Seabrook Lot will be reserved for handicap, elderly, and Chancellor's Guests. The handicap drop-off area is in front of Seabrook Auditorium. Once the Seabrook Lot is full, traffic officers will direct you to the next closest lot. A campus parking lot map is available at <http://www.uncfsu.edu/graphics/campus/campusmp.htm>.