TEACHER EDUCATION COMMITTEE

Preamble

The Teacher Education unit at Fayetteville State University is administered from the Office of the Dean of the School of Education. The Director of Teacher Education is the designee responsible for the oversight of teacher education programs and is accountable to the Dean of the School of Education for all recommendations relating to such programs.

Article I. Purpose

The Teacher Education Committee is the body which ensures adherence to standards of state, regional and national accrediting agencies. Therefore it assumes the responsibility to facilitate and coordinate program evaluation efforts related to teacher education across all licensure areas.

The Committee believes that a formal, systematic and continuous evaluation process of teacher education and licensure is critical to maintaining excellence in the preparation of teachers.

All teacher preparation programs adhere to the policies and procedures outlined by the Teacher Education Committee. The Teacher Education Committee develops, recommends, and implements curriculum policies and general administrative decisions involving the preparation of teachers.

Appointments to the Teacher Education Committee are made by the Dean of the School of Education. The membership consists of university professors, student majors, public school representatives, local administrative agency (LEA), and community college personnel.
