FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY

MEDIA POLICY

Authority: Issued by the Chancellor. Changes or exceptions to administrative policies issued by the Chancellor may only be made by the Chancellor.

Category: General University Policies

Applies to: ● Faculty ● Staff

History: Approved August 24, 2004
First issued, August 24, 2004

Related Policies: N/A

Contact for Info: Office of Public Relations (910) 672-1474

Fayetteville State University encourages members of its administration, faculty, and staff to speak with media representatives, particularly in instances when they can provide scholarly opinion on a topic within their areas of expertise. If a member of the media requests a response to a matter that may be deemed public record and the university employee uncomfortable answering the question, s/he may then direct the media representative to the Office of Public Relations.