

MASTER OF SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION DEGREE PROGRAM INFORMATION SHEET

Fayetteville State University's Master of School Administration Program is designed to prepare school leaders for the nation. All students enrolled in the Master of School Administration Program complete forty-two (42) hours of graduate course credits, including six (6) hours of electives. Students must also pass a comprehensive examination. The program cohorts begin each fall semester and complete the program in two years. A year-long, full-time internship is a program requirement.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

- Completion of Fayetteville State University Graduate School application
- Undergraduate GPA of 2.75 overall or 3.00 in the last sixty (60) hours of coursework
- GRE or MAT scores that are no more than five (5) years old.
- Three letters of recommendation
- A North Carolina A or M teaching license
- Essay outlining graduate school educational goals and professional objectives (One to two pages, to be submitted with Graduate School application)
- Completion of an interview and writing exercise

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS:

Specialization: 21 Credits

EDAM 650: Educational Leadership Development Seminar	3 credits
EDAM 651: Organizational Development and Diversity for School Leaders	3 credits
EDAM 652: School-Based Program Evaluation and Improvement	3 credits
EDAM 660: Leadership and Organizational Theories in School	3 credits
EDAM 661: School Law and Public Policy Issues	3 credits
EDAM 670: Resource Management and Schools	3 credits
EDAM 671: Leadership for Learning	3 credits

Internship: 15 Credits

EDAM 680: Internship – Part I*	3 credits
EDAM 690: Internship – Part II*	6 credits
EDAM 691: Internship - Part III*	6 credits

Prerequisites required*

Electives 6 credits

Departmental Electives

EDAM 653/EDLE 753:	Advanced Research and Methodology for School Improvement
EDAM 680:	Computer Usage for Educational Administrators
EDLE 799/EDAM 699:	Advanced Studies in Educational Leadership
EDUC 680:	Special Topics in School Administration

Six credit hours of electives should be selected from business, arts, and sciences or special education.

Applicants are encouraged to contact either Dr. Abul Pitre, Interim Chair of the Department of Educational Leadership & Foundations, or Dr. Ted Kaniuka, Interim Coordinator of the M.S.A. Program for additional information.

Fayetteville State University is a Constituent Institution of the University of North Carolina.

MASTER OF SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM (42 Credits)
Fayetteville State University, 1200 Murchison Road, Fayetteville, North Carolina 28301
G. L. Butler Building, Suite 340 , Phone (910) 672-1731