

Community Partnership Breakfast

Fayetteville State
University

August 3, 2011

WELCOME!

- Goals

- Provide details regarding campus resources available for community use
- Share our strategic community engagement initiatives with the public
- Create new partnerships and solidify existing partnerships by sharing our needs

FSU Core Value

We believe in outreach, partnerships with educational institutions, the military, and the community, economic transformation of the state, and service to others.

Utilizing YOUR Hometown Campus

- Special Policies for Political Events
 - The activity must be sponsored or hosted by registered student organizations and all expenses related to the activity, if any, are borne by the candidate, political organizations or student organizations.
 - University facilities may be rented for political events per campus policy on use of university premises and facilities. Such sponsored events may not be subsidized or supported by the university.
 - Anyone who wishes to endorse a candidate may do so at the university's free speech zone – located in front of the Rudolph Jones Student Center.
