NOTE TO STUDENTS ABOUT CLASS WITHDRAWALS:

- Students receive no refund for withdrawing from individual classes and they slow their progress toward degree completion.
- Students who withdraw from or fail more than one-third of their classes will no longer be eligible for financial aid.
- STUDENTS MUST STRIVE TO EARN CREDIT FOR ALL THE CLASSES IN WHICH THEY ENROLL. STUDENTS SHOULD WITHDRAW FROM CLASSES ONLY WHEN IT IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY.

B. Other

NOTE: IT IS VERY IMPORTANT TO READ AND UNDERSTAND THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS FOR THIS COURSE.

1. Class Participation/Blackboard

Students are expected to participate in class discussions. This is a web-enhanced class and class materials will be posted on the web.

2. Text and other readings

Assigned readings should be completed according to the given schedule. It usually takes 2 to 3 hours to read one chapter. It is recommended that students take notes carefully when they are reading the chapters.

3. Technology Requirements

This course assumes you already have a demonstrated competence in basic computer skills as listed below. If you are not familiar with the items listed below, you will need to use tutorials, additional self-help tools, or campus resources to improve your competency.

- Blackboard Interface. You should be familiar with blackboard, including the use of on-line quizzes and accessing information.
- The Internet. You must be capable of using the Internet, especially for purposes of getting course-related information from the web page of the textbook hosted by the publisher. The professor may also send you email updates requiring that you visit selected web sites as part of the participation portion of the course and/or homework and tests.
- Email Services. You must be proficient in sending and receiving email, including the use of attachments. And, you need to check your e-mail often for course updates/announcements..
- Turnitin software. You will be required to upload writing assignments to Turnitin. Instructions will be given to you.

4. Communication with the Instructor and with Each Other

The best way to communicate with me is by email. However, feel free to call me if you need an immediate answer. My office and cell phone numbers have been provided for you. Please only call my cell phone between the hours of 9:00 & 5:00 pm. If you have any questions or problems, please let me know as soon as possible so that we can find a solution.

Note: Email ID Requirements: Due to increasingly serious virus threats, I prefer that you adequately identify yourself, or you will run the risk of an un-opened and unread e-mail message . When you send me an email, your subject line should contain: Course Number, Your Name, and Reason for message.

5. Exams

You must take each examination on the date and time scheduled. The exams will be timed and must be completed within the time allotted. Please note: There will be no makeup exams. If you miss an exam due to an emergency, a final essay exam score will be substituted for the missed exam score.

6. Incomplete Policy

The "I" grade will be issued only for students who, because of a valid reason were unable to complete all the requirements for this course. In order to receive an "I", the student should have a grade of at least "C". Written documentation of the reason for requesting an "I" is required. An "I" grade will not be issued because a student is failing, or when it would require a student to complete a major portion of the requirements for the course after the semester has ended. Additionally, to consider an "I" grade, I must have your plan to complete the requirements.

7. Withdrawal Policy

Students may withdraw from individual classes until the deadline each semester, term, or session. (See Academic Calendar for specific dates.) Students who complete the class withdrawal process will receive a grade of W. Tuition and fees are not adjusted for withdrawing from individual classes. Students are required to earn at least 67% of their attempted hours each semester to maintain financial aid eligibility. Students who withdraw from more than 33% of their attempted hours in a semester will lose financial aid. Failure to attend class does not constitute official withdrawal from that class.

Students are permitted to withdraw from a maximum of five classes throughout their undergraduate career. After a student has exceeded this limit, the student must earn a final grade of A,B,C,D,F, or FN.

8. Academic Dishonesty

Plagiarism and cheating are serious offenses and may be punished by failure on exam or assignment; failure in course; and/or expulsion from the University. Plagiarism is a serious academic and business (legal) offense and is considered theft of intellectual property. Please visit the Georgetown University web site (<http://www.georgetown.edu/honor/plagiarism.html>) for plagiarism discussions. All students enrolled in FSU classes at all levels are responsible for knowing what constitutes plagiarism. Whether by design or by accident, plagiarized content is unacceptable. There are no explanatory circumstances.

I will submit your assignments to Turnitin.com for plagiarism detection. If I find plagiarism of 25% to 75% you will be given one opportunity to redo the assignment before a zero is issued. If I find 75% or more, you will receive a zero immediately. If you wish you utilize Turnitin.com before you submit your assignment a link has been created for you. The ID is 3735181 and the password is password.

Plagiarism occurs when:

- Students submit work that directly quotes or paraphrases the work of another, without specific citation of the passages crediting the creator of the work
- Students combine the works of another with their own original effort, including comments on those passages, without specific citation of the passages crediting the creator of the work.
- Students include a list of references at the end of an assignment but do not indicate which words or passages specifically (by use of quotation marks) are from those sources and which words or passages are original work

9. Other

Class Project: Your class project will be to do a 7-10 page paper on the health care industry of a foreign country focusing specifically on the pros, cons and finances of that industry. You will also be making recommendations on how to address any deficiencies that you find with the program.

CLA: This will be an out-of-class assignment that will test your critical thinking skills

Discussion Boards: On BB you will find five discussion questions. You are to answer the discussion questions, with at least 250 words. Your answers must be supported by outside resources in order to receive credit. We will discuss the questions in class. Each one will be due on the day noted on the schedule at the end of the syllabus.

VIII. ACADEMIC SUPPORT SERVICES

To facilitate student success, Blackboard will be used for on-line quizzes, the distribution of additional course materials and other activities. Smartthinking, and Turnitin, as well as the FSU Writing Center are available to students to support writing assignments. Directions for access/usage of these resources will be given in class as needed.

IX. Teaching Strategies

The materials will be presented in this class through class lectures and on occasion, guest speakers and video presentations, student presentations and group discussion. Students are responsible for all reading assignments, whether textbook or supplementary readings. This is a web-enhanced course enhanced by using Blackboard (<http://blackboard.uncfsu.edu/>). All class announcements and materials such as syllabus, handouts, presentations, and study guides are available on Blackboard. Finally, the grade book posts all student grades associated with tests and assignments. You should use the Blackboard grade book to review your grades. Please check the Blackboard frequently for updates related to the class. update your information.

Please note: If these evaluation criteria must be revised because of extraordinary circumstances, the instructor will distribute a written amendment to the syllabus.

Student Behavior Expectations: -The instructor will respect all students and will make every effort to maintain a classroom climate that promotes learning for all students. Students must accept their responsibility for maintaining a positive classroom environment by abiding by the following rules:

1. Students are expected to arrive to class on time, remain in class until dismissed by the instructor, and refrain from preparing to leave class until it is dismissed.
2. Student/teacher relationships, as well as relationships among peers, must be respectful at all times.
3. Students are not permitted to wear headphones or other paraphernalia that may be distracting to the classroom environment.
4. Students must refrain from any activity that will disrupt the class; this includes turning off cell phones and pagers.
5. Students are not permitted to use profanity in the classroom.
6. Students will not pass notes or carry on private conversations while class is being conducted.

Consequences for Failing to Meet Behavioral Expectations: The first time a student violates one of these rules, the instructor will warn him or her privately, either after class or before the next class. (Faculty members reserve the right to warn students publicly if needed.) The second time a student violates the guidelines, the instructor may deduct as many as twenty points from the student's next exam grade. If a student violates the guidelines three times, the instructor will report the student to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action according to the FSU Code of Student Conduct.
