

FSU Case 2007-089178

TIMELY NOTIFICATION BULLENTIN

Possible Threat to the Community
“Your Right to Know”
April 3, 2007

In compliance with the “Timely Notice” provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, the Fayetteville State University (FSU) Campus Police are giving notice of a disturbing act of violence reported to have occurred on the campus of Fayetteville State University.

On Monday, April 2, 2007, an alleged sexual assault was reported to the FSU Campus Police. The alleged assault occurred on April 1, 2007 at approximately 10:30 am in one of the residence halls on the campus of Fayetteville State University.

Acquaintance rape is a sexual assault by an individual known to the victim. The circumstances surrounding the allegations suggest the victim may have known the alleged perpetrators. Students should not expose themselves to unnecessary risks.

If you have any information that might be helpful in this investigation, contact the University Police by telephone at (910) 672-1775 or Crime Stoppers at (910) 433-1850; in person at the University Police Department, which is on Grace Black Circle. Anonymous information is welcomed.

The university has an “affirmative duty” to warn persons associated with this university of possible peril at the hands of some third party or parties. Students/staff/faculty should consider carefully your surroundings and stay cognizant of those around you.
