

FSU Case 20080409347

TIMELY NOTIFICATION BULLETIN
Possible Threat to the Community
“Your Right to Know”
April 4, 2008

In compliance with the provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, the Fayetteville State University (FSU) Campus Police are giving notice of an alleged disturbing act of violence reported to have occurred on the campus of Fayetteville State University.

On Tuesday, April 1, 2008, an alleged assault was reported to campus administrators. The incident allegedly occurred on Friday March 28, 2008, at approximately 12:00 a.m. in the area of Bryant Hall, on the campus of Fayetteville State University. The victim stated that he was walking out of the building when he was approached by the suspect who allegedly pointed a gun at his head as a warning for an incident that occurred earlier in the day.

The circumstances surrounding the allegations suggest the victim may have known the alleged perpetrator.

If you have any information that might be helpful in this investigation, contact the University Police by telephone at (910) 672-1775 or Crime Stoppers at (910) 433-1850; in person at the University Police Department, which is located on Grace Black Circle. Anonymous information is welcomed. The university has an “affirmative duty” to warn persons associated with this university of possible peril at the hands of some third party or parties.

Students/staff/faculty should consider carefully your surroundings and stay cognizant of those around you.
