

FSU Case 20090617153
TIMELY NOTIFICATION BULLETIN
Possible Threat to the Community
“Your Right to Know”
June 1, 2009

In compliance with the provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, the Fayetteville State University (FSU) Campus Police are giving notice of an alleged disturbing act of violence reported to have occurred on the campus of Fayetteville State University.

On Monday, June 1, 2009, at approximately 2:47 a.m., Fayetteville State University police officers discovered an individual on the campus of Fayetteville State University, whom had been assaulted while on campus. The individual was transported to a local hospital by medical personnel for treatment. The investigation of the incident tends to show that the victim was followed onto campus and assaulted while on campus. After assaulting the victim, three suspects left the area by walking and one suspect left the area by bicycle.

The suspects' descriptions are as follows:

Suspect 1: Black male, wearing a pair of white shorts and carrying a white T-shirt.
Suspect 1 was riding a bicycle.

Suspect 2: Black male, wearing a light colored T-shirt and dark colored pants. Suspect 2 was riding on the back of the bicycle operated by Suspect 1.

Suspect 3: Black male, wearing a white colored “wife-beater” tank-top style T-shirt and dark colored shorts.

Suspect 4: Black male, wearing a white T-shirt, dark colored pants, and a baseball style cap.

All suspects appeared to be young males.

If you have any information that might be helpful in this investigation, contact the Fayetteville Police Department at (910) 433-1830, the Fayetteville State University Police Department at (910) 672-1775, or Crime Stoppers at (910) 483-8477. Anonymous information is welcomed. The university has an “affirmative duty” to warn persons associated with this university of possible peril at the hands of some third party or parties.

Students, staff, and faculty should carefully consider their surroundings and stay cognizant of those around them. Students, staff, and faculty are highly discouraged from walking alone, especially during the night time hours. Students, staff, and faculty should walk in groups and walk in well lit, frequently traveled areas. Students, staff, and faculty are encouraged to sign up for and utilize the Rave Guardian system. Students, staff, and faculty can learn more about the Rave Guardian system by visiting the Fayetteville State University website.