TIMELY NOTIFICATION BULLETIN
Possible Threat to the Community
“Your Right to Know”
September 27, 2010

In compliance with the provisions of the Federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, the Fayetteville State University (FSU) Campus Police are giving notice of an alleged disturbing act of violence reported to have occurred on the campus of Fayetteville State University.

On the evening of Sunday, September 26, 2010, an alleged sexual battery was reported to campus police and administrators. The incident allegedly occurred on Sunday, September 26, 2010 at approximately 3:52 a.m. in the shower area of a residence hall. The female victim reported that upon entering the bathroom, a male subject followed her into the bathroom. The victim reported that after entering the bathroom, she was confronted by a second male who was in the shower area of the bathroom. The victim reported that the second male then pushed her against the wall and began to kiss her neck and rub her genitals. The victim also reported that the male attempted to get her to touch his genitals. The victim reported that after she refused to cooperate with the male, he then left the bathroom.

The suspects are described as follows:

Suspect 1: Black male, approximately 19-20 years old, slim build, approximately 6 feet tall, weighing approximately 160-180 pounds, with small afro style hair. The suspect was reported to be wearing a white colored T-shirt and a pair of unknown colored pants.

Suspect 2: Black male, approximately 20 years old, muscular build, approximately over 6 feet tall. The suspect was reported not to be wearing a shirt.

Suspect Vehicle: White older model vehicle, possibly an Oldsmobile Cutlass or Buick.

If you have any information that might be helpful in this investigation, contact the Fayetteville State University Police Department at (910) 672-1775 or Crime Stoppers at (910) 433-1833.
