

FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY: invites applicants for FIVE TENURE-TRACK POSITIONS beginning in Fall Semester, August 2010. The Department offers a B.S. in Psychology, a Biopsychology concentration, and M.A. degrees in Counseling and General Experimental Psychology. On-line teaching will be a part of the teaching load for all these tenure track positions. Position 2. Assistant or Associate Professor in General Experimental Psychology. The successful applicant will have a Ph.D. in psychology, a strong commitment to undergraduate and graduate teaching in a multicultural environment, and an active research program that will involve undergraduate and graduate students. While all areas of general-experimental psychology will be considered, the department is developing a biopsychology concentration with a human electrophysiological research laboratory and candidates with research interest in sensation and perception, biopsychology, neurocognition, or neurological processes during development will be given careful consideration.

PLEASE SPECIFY THE POSITION THAT YOU ARE APPLYING FOR AND WHERE YOU SAW THIS AD. To apply, send letter of application specifying the position of interest, curriculum vitae, reprints of recent publications, a statement of teaching philosophy, official undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation from individuals familiar with your work to: Dr. Thomas E. Van Cantfort, Interim Chair, Department of Psychology, 1200 Murchison Road, Fayetteville, NC 28301-4298. (www.uncfsu.edu/psychology). Review of applications will begin immediately. The application process will be open until the positions are filled and contingent on funding.
