

FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

Faculty Opening: Tenure Track Professor in Entrepreneurship and Free Enterprise, Rank Open

The School of Business and Economics at Fayetteville State University seeks to hire a tenure track professor to join the Entrepreneurship faculty team, beginning Fall 2012. The ideal candidate must be a scholar and enthusiastic about working with students. The person hired will help develop and expand an existing concentration in entrepreneurship and enhance its visibility on campus and in the community.

Fayetteville State University, a constituent of the University of North Carolina System, offers 67 academic programs. The School of Business and Economics is listed as a Top 150 U.S. business school by SSRN, and is accredited by AACSB International. The School provides an especially attractive academic environment with a high degree of collegiality among faculty members and a strong focus on student services and community relationships.

The successful candidate must have a doctorate in entrepreneurship, economics, or related field from an accredited institution. Experience working as an entrepreneur or working with entrepreneurs is a plus.

Salaries are competitive and commensurate with education and experience.

Review of all applications will continue until the position is filled. Please submit a letter of interest, curriculum vita, copy of graduate transcripts, and contact information for three professional references to: <http://www.uncfsu.edu/humres/vacancies.htm>

Enquiries can be directed to:
Dr. Edward Stringham
Professor and Endowed Chair
Email: estringh@uncfsu.edu