The faculty in the School of Education (SOE) at Fayetteville State University is willing to share their expertise with consumer groups in the community who need information and services that our subject matter experts may be able to provide.

Please contact the main office number to inquire or to make an appointment with a faculty member to discuss your organization's needs.

You may also contact us through the Office of School Services in the SOE by calling
