Employees Participating in the Army-Fayetteville State University
Master of Social Work Program

1. I understand that participating in the Department of the Army-Fayetteville State University Master of Social Work Program creates a service obligation of 3 years and 2 months for me. I agree to work for the Department of the Army or another Department of Defense component for the time specified below. If I am involuntarily separated from my job, my service obligation ends. However, I will be held responsible for repayment of relocation and educational expenses that the Government assumed in order for me to attend the Master of Social Work Program at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

2. I understand that if I am involuntarily removed from the Army-Fayetteville State Master of Social Work Program for academic reasons, I will be responsible for repayment of any relocation and educational expenses that the Government has assumed.

3. I understand that I will be eligible to begin fulfilling my service obligation following completion of the 14-month didactic phase of the Master of Social Work Program.

4. I understand that if I break this agreement, the Government may garnish my pay to recoup the costs for attending this program. The Government can also recover the full amount I owe it in other legal ways.
