

GUEST SPEAKER SARITA O'NEAL, M.D.

Dr. Sarita O'Neal is double-board certified in general psychiatry and child and adolescent psychiatry. A native of North Carolina, Dr. O'Neal earned her Bachelor of Science in Chemistry and minor in Spanish from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2003. She earned her medical degree from the Brody School of Medicine at East Carolina University in 2011 in Greenville, NC. Dr. O'Neal completed her medical residency in psychiatry at East Carolina University and Vidant Medical Center from 2011-2014. She received additional training by completing a fellowship in child and adolescent psychiatry from 2014-2016. After completing her residency and fellowship, Dr. O'Neal has worked as a traveling psychiatrist, with completion of her most recent tenancy in the fall of 2018 at New Hanover Regional Medical Center Behavioral Health Hospital in Wilmington, NC. Dr. O'Neal is undertaking a new venture by opening her own private practice, Carolina Psychiatry Center, PLLC, in the fall of 2019.

FSU Center for Personal Development Speaker Series
&
Senior Class Council
Present

Dr. Sarita O'Neal

Dr. O'Neal will share her journey to becoming a medical doctor and psychiatrist. She will also provide greater insight about depression among college students.

TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 2019
7 0' CLOCK IN THE EVENING
RJSC 242

Special Performance

FSU Dancers under the direction of
Mrs. Avis Hatcher- Puzzo,
Associate Professor of Dance/Theater

Light refreshments and door prizes will be available.

Questions ? Contact Victoria Ratliff at (910) 672-1222