In the year ended June 30, 2024, Fayetteville State University received approximately $84 million in appropriations from the North Carolina General Assembly, providing an additional $15,754 towards the total cost of education for each resident student.

*The reduced tuition is a result of the NC Promise Program, which was established by the North Carolina General Assembly. This program is expected to provide an additional $13.8 million in state appropriations to FSU in FY 2023-24 to support the significant reduction in cost to students.
