

Bronco Regard

The Newsletter of Academic Affairs
Fayetteville State University
Issue One, January 2019

Kudos

- ❖ Kudos to Dr. ILA, Biology, students Ms. Miller, Chemistry, Mr. Castro, Biology, Ms. Vivian, Business Entrepreneurship for putting together a winning Nasa project. As one of Nasa's top ten proposals, the team will work with Nasa to identify contaminants in potable water to preserve space and earth life.

Help Wanted

- ❖ FSU English faculty/student-driven GLINT literary journal has released its most recent Winter issue. Glint is accepting fiction, non-fiction, and poetry submissions for their next issue now.

Whatever Happened To

- ❖ Representative Marvin W. Lucas (FSU '64) returns to the 2019-2020 State of North Carolina Assembly for the tenth time.

Departments' Doings

- ❖ Broadwell Business College has begun its successful Entrepreneurship series.

The Cyberworld

- ❖ Encourage students to apply to Clemson U.'s HBCU Erwin Scholars summer program. The program brings thirty students to Clemson to learn from industry professionals and businesses.

Travel

- ❖ See the World! It is never too early to encourage students to apply to study abroad. Check out a comprehensive listing of study abroad programs here.
- ❖ FSU offers many student options at the FSU Studies Abroad Office. Please note recent China travel advisories.

Announcements

- ❖ Dr. Robert W. McGee has been appointed to the Advisory Board of the the France- Georgia Chamber of Commerce. Also, Dr. McGee was recently named Editor in Chief of the European Scientific Journal.
- ❖ Dr. Kim Tran has been appointed to the BOG Military Affairs Committee.

Celebrate Students

- ❖ FSU Elementary Student Teachers land permanent teaching positions.
- ❖ Kendall Lowe and Deandra Simpson have been awarded fellowships with the Mary Ellen Pleasant Fellowship Competition sponsored by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation!

Community In/Out Reach

- ❖ Dr. LaDelle Olion (MSSS) will receive the W.E.B. DuBois Award at the 84th Annual of the Association of Social and Behavioral Scientists, Fayetteville, NC, March 2019.
- ❖ Broadway College of Business & Finance ranked in top 25 for on-line programs.

What's New

- ❖ Dr. Beverlyn Cain, Dr. Marilyn Lanier, and Dr. Jocelyn Smith-Gray (Elementary Education) have been awarded a Wolf Trap Institute of Learning Grant.

Early Colleges

- ❖ Many Early College students successfully navigate a FSU degree. Recent graduate Kimberly Dickens also studied abroad.
- ❖ CC Early College International High School Event Schedule

The Classroom Experience

- ❖ How to attract and maintain liberal arts majors.
- ❖ Students' voices matter according to a recent Higher Education article.

To include news in next month's issue, please contact Micki Nyman, mnyman@uncfsu.edu.