

Employer Survey of New Teachers Fall 2020

The College of Educations sends surveys to school principles so they can provide feedback on the New Teachers they have hired who have completed their program of study at Fayetteville State. A new teacher is considered anyone who has less than 3 years in the classroom.

The survey was sent to 69 principals and 32 responded.

Question/Statement	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neither agree or disagree	Agree	Strongly Agree
The Professional Educator demonstrates high ethical standards?	0%	0%	0%	15.63%	84.38%
The Professional Educator is receptive to constructive criticism and responds professionally?	0%	3.13%	0%	6.25%	90.63%
The Professional Educator maintains a safe classroom that facilitates learning.	0%	0%	0%	18.75%	81.25%
The Professional Educator maintains an orderly classroom that facilitates learning.	0%	0%	0%	21.88%	78.13%
The Professional Educator maintains a positive learning environment.	0%	0%	0%	21.88%	78.13%
The Professional Educator appropriately uses lessons that acknowledges the contribution of diverse cultures.	0%	0%	6.25%	43.75%	50%
The Professional Educator manages his/her resources for the benefit of the school's vision and mission.	0%	0%	0%	40.63%	59.38%

Question/Statement	Worse	About the Same	Better
When compared to other teacher education graduates from other teacher education programs who have similar lengths of teaching experience, how would you rate the Fayetteville State teacher education graduate/licensure completer(s)?	0%	43.75%	56.25%