

Student Earns Internship with the National Geospatial Intelligence Agency

One of our students, Christopher Wells, is currently doing an internship at the National Geospatial Intelligence Agency. He is working as an imagery analyst. He is a double major in CJ and Intelligence Studies. He will be graduating in May 2020.

