Introduction to Protecting Minors On Campus

- This presentation is a general overview of the potential legal issues and risks involved with hosting minors on FSU’s campus. The presentation also describes best practices for protecting minors.
- For more specific details, reach out to the contact person named at the end of the presentation.
A. UNC System Policy

The Policy

- Effective May 22, 2019, activities or programs hosting children under age 18 must comply with UNC System Policy 1300.10 Policy on Protection of Minors on Campus.
- The UNC System policy applies to FSU activities or programs for minors hosted by FSU (on or off-campus) or third-parties (on-campus).
- The UNC System policy establishes requirements for registration and minimum training and background checks of staff, faculty, contractors, and volunteers.

Registration

- The UNC System Policy requires all programs or activities for minors to be registered and approved by FSU.
- Programs or activities hosted by FSU must register prior to 60 calendar days before the start date.
- Third-party programs or activities must register prior to 90 calendar days before the start date.
- To obtain or submit registration forms, contact Dr. Jane Smith at jsmit101@uncfsu.edu. Dr. Smith will review each program request to ensure compliance with UNC System Policy and communicate with the program leader about approval status.
- Third-parties who would like to rent FSU space must complete the FSU contracting process. A contract should be signed by all parties prior to submitting program registration forms to Dr. Smith. Contact your FSU point of contact or the FSU ASTRA Administrator (afairley@uncfsu.edu) to inquire about the FSU rental process.
Background Checks

- The UNC System Policy requires that all leaders, faculty, staff, contractors, student workers, and volunteers of programs and activities for minors complete mandatory background checks. Background checks will be conducted on all individuals 18 years old or older, who work closely with, supervise, instruct, or otherwise come into direct, non-incidental contact with minors. This policy applies to:
  - Program and activity leaders, employees, faculty, volunteers, contractors, and working students of FSU, and
  - owners, leaders, employees, contractors, faculty, and volunteers of third-party entities.
- The FSU Office of Legal Affairs conducts background checks for programs or activities hosted by FSU. Third-party programs or activities may conduct their own background checks if approved by the FSU Office of Legal Affairs.
- The FSU Office of Legal Affairs will review background information and communicate any concerns to the program or activity leaders and the Office for Adult Learners. The minimum background checks will include a review of:
  - Criminal history from every state of residence;
  - Driving records of any person who will transport program or activity participants; and
  - State and federal sex offender registries.
- FSU may prohibit any person with a serious background concern from working with programs or activities for children.
Training

The UNC System Policy requires that program and activity staff participate in annual training on protecting minors. Such training will be provided by the FSU Office for Adult Learners. Staff who must be trained include all individuals who are 18 years old or older and who work closely with, supervise, instruct, or otherwise come into direct, non-incidental contact with minors, including:

- program or activity leaders, faculty, employees, contractors, volunteers, and working students of FSU, and
- owners, leaders, employees, contractors, faculty, and volunteers of third-party entities.

Third-party programs may conduct their own training if approved by the FSU Office of Adult Learners. However, such training must, at a minimum, include the same topic areas provided in the training program provided by the FSU Office for Adult Learners.

The Office for Adult Learners will communicate approvals of training to program or activity leaders.

Training must be conducted prior to 7 business days before the program start date.
Exclusions

UNC System Policy 1300.10 Protection of Minors on Campus background checks and training requirements does not apply to:

- early college high schools operating on the campus of FSU;
- externally sponsored field trips or visits that bring minors to FSU property;
- programs, activities or events that are open to the general public, such as concerts or theatrical performances; or
- Programs or activities designed exclusively for students enrolled or matriculated at FSU.

However, FSU requires all programs or activities for minors to register with the FSU Office for Adult Learners.
B. You have a Legal Responsibility to Do What is Reasonable to Protect Minors From Harm.

You are obligated to Prevent Harm and Injuries.
- Later in this training, you will learn minimum standards for preventing harm to minors who access FSU programs. FSU expects program leaders to develop and enforce minimum standards for preventing harm to minors. FSU also expects you to adhere to such standards (Assessing Risk and Best Practices for Programs Involving Minors on Campus, National Association of University Attorneys (2010)).

You are obligated to Report Child Abuse, Violence, or Neglect.
- You must report child abuse, violence, or neglect to law enforcement and the Cumberland County Department of Social Services. You must also report such crimes to your supervisor. You must report any child abuse, violence, or neglect that you know about, that you suspect, or that you should reasonably know about (NCGS 7B-301 and Session Law 2019-245 (NCGS14-318.6)).

You are obligated to Prevent Sexual Discrimination, Gender Inequity, Sexual Harassment, Stalking, Dating Violence, or Sexual Abuse or Misconduct by Reporting Incidents to the Title IX Coordinator.
- You must report sexual discrimination, gender inequity, sexual harassment, sexual violence, stalking, dating violence, or sexual abuse/misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator if the incident occurred on-campus. You must also report any incidents occurring off-campus if:
  - The incident is between program or activity participants, or
  - The incident is between a program or activity participant and a faculty, staff, contractor, student worker, or volunteer.
- To report incidents to the Title IX Coordinator, call 672-2325. Your reporting responsibilities will be described in more detail later in this training (Title IX 20 U.S.C. Sections 1681-1688).
You have a Legal Responsibility to Do What is Reasonable to Protect Minors From Harm.

- You are obligated to Provide Disability Accommodations.
  - FSU must provide reasonable accommodations to assist people with disabilities in accessing FSU programs. Some minimum requirements for accommodating participants are described later in the training on managing medical risks of children (ADA 42 USC § 12182).

- Reporting Crime and Safety Concerns.
  - Many program leaders, faculty, staff, contractors, student workers, and volunteers are responsible for supervising the safety and security of the children in FSU programs. These individuals are called “campus security authorities.” Campus security authorities are required to notify law enforcement of certain crimes reported to them.
  - Remember, you must report child abuse, violence, or neglect to police and the Cumberland County Department of Social Services. However, you may have additional reporting responsibilities if you are classified as a campus security authority.
  - Later in this training, we will describe who is considered to be a campus security authority and exactly which crimes must be reported (20 U.S.C. § 1092 (f)(1)(F), (f)(7), (i), and (j)).
C. Minimum Requirements for Compliance

• Report any crimes to your supervisor and the FSU Police (672-1911) or on the LiveSafe App.

• Call 672-1911 to report any health or safety emergencies.

• Report child abuse, violence, or neglect of any kind to your supervisor, to the Cumberland County Department of Social Services by calling at (910) 677-2450, and to the University Police by calling 672-1911.

• Report to your supervisor and the Title IX Coordinator (672-2325) sexual discrimination, inequity, harassment, assault, stalking, violence or dating violence.

• Ensure that someone on your staff is immediately available and trained in medication administration, CPR, First Aid, and Emergency Management.

• Have parents complete liability release forms. FSU employees may contact Legal Affairs or the Office for Adult Learners to obtain forms.
C. Minimum Requirements for Compliance (Continued)

- Complete background checks on ALL paid and unpaid staff, faculty, contractors, parent volunteers, student volunteers, and administrators. Contact Terrance Robinson in the Office of Legal Affairs (672-1145).
- Check sex offender registries.
  2. Federal: https://www.nsopw.gov/
- Ensure adequate supervision of ALL minors under age 16 at ALL times. (In the lab, under age 18).
- Put in place a medication administration policy and emergency preparedness plan.
- Have health forms for voluntary disclosure of needs' assistance.
