

PROTECTION OF MINORS ON CAMPUS

Fayetteville State University strives to create a welcoming and safe environment for all minors visiting campus or participating in University programs. The Protection of Minors on Campus (PMOC) policy and procedures focus on protecting the safety of minors in programs sponsored by, or affiliated with Fayetteville State University, or conducted on University property.

University Policy

Covered Programs include, but are not limited to academic camps, athletics camps, and other enrichment programs, whether daytime only or overnight programs.

All Covered programs must be registered and approved by Fayetteville State University Protection of Minors on Campus office prior to the initiation of any activity involving minors. Programs must be registered and approved annually.

Covered Programs do not generally include

- field trips or campus visits
- Programs or events that are not focused on minors as the targeted audience and are open to the general public.
- Programs for students enrolled or matriculated at Fayetteville State University.

Adults working with minors must complete a PMOC screening and training.

Reporting Requirements

According to North Carolina law, any person or institution who has cause to suspect that any juvenile is abused, neglected or dependent, or has died as a result of maltreatment, as defined by G.S. 7B-101, shall report the case to the director of Department of Social Services in the county where the juvenile resides or is found, as outlined in G.S. 7B-301.

All incidents involving minors including suspected abuse or neglect of a minor must be reported to the Protection of Minors on Campus.

If you suspect or know that a child has been abused or neglected, take the following steps:

- If a child is in immediate danger, call 911.
- Call Police and Public Safety, 910-672-1911.
- Report any incident involving a minor on campus to the PMOC Office within 24 hours.

Contact the Protection of Minors on Campus office:

By phone at 910-672-1043

By email at Equity@uncfsu.edu

Online www.uncfsu.edu/protection-of-minors-on-campus