

Have you experienced Sex/Gender-Based Discrimination, Harassment, and/or Violence?

You have options. Fayetteville State University can help.

FSU can help you

- » Connect with campus & off-campus resources & services to receive help.
- » File a police report or a Formal Complaint with the University.
- » Obtain Supportive Measures such as academic assistance, housing adjustments, or a no-contact order.

Talk to a confidential resource*

- » Student Health Services (Medical Assistance): 910-672-1259
- » Counseling & Personal Development Center: 910-672-1222
- » Employee Assistance Program: 866-465-8933
- » Cape Fear Valley Medical Center: 910-615-4000

*Any disclosure of an incident while seeking confidential services will not constitute a report to the University and the University will not investigate or respond.

File a Formal Complaint or request Supportive Measures

- » Complete the digital form:
www.UNCFSU.edu/Title-IX-concerns
Call the Title IX Office at 910-672-2325 or » visit Barber Building, Upper Level, Office 242

Email TitleIX@uncfsu.edu or Teams @TitleIX

Seek assistance and create a safety plan

- » FSU Police & Public Safety: 910-672-1911
- » FSU Victim Assistance Program: 910-672-1775

Or visit the Mitchell Building - 24 hours per day, 7 days per week

Scan me to learn more

Fostering a culture of access, belonging, & accountability.

FSU Title IX Office

910-672-2325
TitleIX@uncfsu.edu
@BroncoltsOnUs

FAYETTEVILLE
STATE UNIVERSITY™