Dear Campus Community,

Fayetteville State University has received a threat, which the Department of Police and Public Safety is actively investigating in coordination with the Fayetteville Police Department and State and Federal partners. The campus remains open, and operations will continue as usual until further notice.

FSU Police will continue to monitor this threat and keep you updated. Please remain vigilant and report any suspicious activity.

"See something, say something," call the University Police at (910) 672-1775 or 911.
