“See Something, Say Something”

Fayetteville State University Case:2025-0059

Date Occurred: 02/12/2025

Date Reported: 02/12/2025

Reported Crime: Breaking and Entering

Location: Broadwell College of Business

Notice is being provided to the campus community in regard to a crime that occurred on campus at the listed building on February 12, 2025. Douglas Edward Epps was on campus after previously being trespassed from Fayetteville State University property. Epps was seen inside classrooms and offices in the Broadwell College of Business. Epps currently has several warrants for crimes committed at Fayetteville State University. Epps continues to come back to the property after being banned to commit more crimes of the same nature. During his time on campus, he has had face-to-face contacts with several students, staff and faculty.

If you have any information that might be helpful in this investigation, or observe Douglas Epps on campus at any time, contact the following:

- FSU Police and Public Safety at (910) 672-1775 (non-emergency) or (910) 672-1911 (emergency), or by using the FSU RAVE app;
- Fayetteville Police Department at (910) 433-1529; or 911

FSU Police and Public Safety would like to remind the University Community (students, faculty, staff and visitors) to:

- Be aware of your surroundings and look assertive.
- Walk with friends or coworkers when possible.
- Trust your intuition, if a particular situation makes you feel uncomfortable, choose an alternative.
- If you feel threatened on campus, look for a call box for emergency assistance.
- Program the phone number for the FSU Police and Public Safety into your cell phone or use the FSU RAVE app.
