THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDALLION

The Fayetteville State University Chancellor's Medallion features the university seal in bronze, brushed with gold, and surrounded with decorative florets, each of which holds a sparkling blue stone. The seal displays symbols of the University's history. The historic alumni gates stand open welcoming people in. Between the gates is the Howard School, from which the University emerged. An open book depicts the early mission of the University as a teacher preparatory institution. The clasped hands over the book symbolize the cooperation among races that has enabled FSU to grow and prosper. Within the banner is the University motto, Res Non Verba.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

The ceremonial mace dates back to ancient Rome, where it honored heroes and nobility. Today, it is used as a symbol of authority. The mace was first adopted in 1986. During all formal academic processions, the mace is carried by the chief marshal. The mace is 48" in height with a fluted walnut staff.

PRESIDING

Chancellor Darrell T. Allison

DARRELL T. ALLISON, J.D.

CHANCELLOR AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY

Dr. Darrell T. Allison serves as the 12th chancellor and chief executive officer of Fayetteville State University, the second-oldest public institution in the University of North Carolina System. Under his visionary leadership, FSU has achieved unprecedented transformation across all mission areas.

STUDENT SUCCESS

Chancellor Allison has led FSU to remarkable growth, with the university reaching record enrollment of over 7,600 students in Fall 2025—the highest enrollment growth of any UNC institution at 7.3%. Retention rates have surged from 63% to 78%, while four-year graduation rates improved by five percentage points, the highest rate of improvement among all UNC campuses. These gains resulted from innovative initiatives, including the 30-60-90 Campaign with free summer school, the Bronco Boost transition program, partnerships with 20 community colleges, doubled academic advising staff, and free laptops for all incoming freshmen through a collaboration with Lenovo Corporation.

He championed six new undergraduate programs and one graduate program addressing critical workforce needs, including Cybersecurity, Supply Chain Management, Materials Science and Manufacturing, and Construction Project Management. His paid internship initiative exceeded goals, delivering over 1,600 internships worth nearly $9 million in compensation through partnerships with over 235 corporations.

MILITARY EXCELLENCE

Chancellor Allison has positioned FSU as the UNC System leader in serving military-affiliated students, who now represent nearly 34% of the student body. His innovative free-tuition program for military-affiliated students, launched in 2022, has increased this population by 27%. In recognition of this commitment, he received the William Pearson Tolley Champion for Veterans in Higher Education award, and FSU became the first UNC institution designated a “Purple Heart University.” In 2025, FSU became the first public university to sign an educational partnership with XVIII Airborne at Fort Bragg.

ECONOMIC IMPACT AND RESOURCES

Chancellor Allison secured historic state budget appropriations totaling more than $210 million for capital projects and successfully advocated for FSU’s inclusion in the NC Promise Tuition Plan. He transformed alumni giving, raising participation rates from 2.5% to a record 7.4%. Private donations exceeded $25 million over four years, including $9 million from an Anonymous Trust and $3 million from the Cape Fear Valley Health System.

His economic development initiatives include the debt-free acquisition of Bronco Midtown, the establishment of the Regional Entrepreneur and Business Hub that has helped secure over $150 million in contracts and created or retained 1,000 jobs, and the opening of flagship restaurant brands, including Chick-fil-A and Starbucks.

RESEARCH AND RECOGNITION

Under his leadership, FSU achieved Carnegie Research University designation in 2025, more than doubling research funding from $15 million to nearly $46 million. The university was selected as NCInnovation’s Defense Innovation Hub. During his tenure, Bronco Nation has won 28 CIAA Championships across multiple sports.

Chancellor Allison has been named to Business North Carolina’s “Power List” in Education for four consecutive years (2022-2025).

GRADUATE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

SIERRA OSBORN

Sierra Osborn is a graduate student and healthcare technology professional dedicated to advancing innovation in federal healthcare systems. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in Healthcare Management from Fayetteville State University, graduating Cum Laude, and is currently completing her Master of Business Administration with a focus in Health Informatics.

During her time at Fayetteville State University, Sierra distinguished herself as a leader, mentor, and advocate for student success. She served as a Peer Career Coach in the Office of Career Services, where she guided fellow students in resume development, career readiness, and professional growth. In this role, she not only helped students navigate their career paths, but also played a key role in planning workshops, supporting career programming, and fostering a culture of confidence and preparation among her peers. As President of the Honors Club, Sierra championed academic excellence and created opportunities for student engagement, demonstrating her commitment to uplifting her campus community.

Her passion for growth and opportunity extended beyond the classroom. Sierra successfully secured a competitive HBCU STEM Scholarship that enabled her and three peers to attend the HIMSS Global Health Conference, where they gained exposure to leading innovations in health informatics and expanded their professional networks. This initiative reflects her dedication to continuous learning and her desire to open doors not only for herself, but for others as well.

Currently serving as a consultant in federal health IT, Sierra has supported large-scale electronic health record modernization efforts across the Department of Defense and Veterans Affairs. Through her work, she has contributed to improving access to care, enhancing operational efficiency, and supporting healthcare providers in delivering high-quality services to patients around the world.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Sierra is passionate about leadership, personal growth, and empowering others to build balanced, purpose-driven lives. She is committed to continuous learning and strives to use her knowledge and experiences to create meaningful, lasting impact.

THE GOLDEN BRONCO SOCIETY

CELEBRATING THE GOLDEN BRONCO CLASS OF 1976

The Golden Bronco Society Class of 1974 celebrates during Spring Commencement in May, 2024.

Fayetteville State University acknowledges and celebrates alumni who graduated 50 years ago, by inducting them into the Golden Bronco Society. An invitation is extended to the members of the class to return to FSU during the Commencement Weekend to celebrate their Golden Anniversary. Each participating member receives a Golden Bronco Medallion and a certificate to commemorate this distinguished milestone. While many of them receive honors, accolades, and recognition from professional and civic organizations, rarely are they given the opportunity to come together with their classmates to be reacquainted, reminisce, and create new memories for years to come, as Fayetteville State University Golden Broncos. We celebrate the Class of 1975 and its many accomplishments and contributions to our beloved institution.

Fayetteville State University proudly welcomes the 2026 Golden Broncos, the Class of 1976, as well as their friends and families, to the 159th Spring Commencement.

Our colors so true, Oh Hail, White and Blue!

To thee our voices ring.

Tho' seasons may roll, and changes unfold,

Thy praise we'll ever sing.

All honor and love and loyalty

We pledge our hearts anew.

Our Alma Mater F.S.U.

We hail thee, Old White and Blue.

We cherish each hall, each time honored wall

Each bending tree and bower.

Tho' far we may roam, thy spirit leads on,

To victory and power.

With courage and might and majesty

March on, old colors true.

Our Alma Mater F.S.U.

We'll stand by Old White and Blue!
